<h2 style="color: #00FFFF;">American Governance</h2> Both systems concurrently exist today. However, the corporate system has been gaining predominance in the last 70 years. Many Sovereigns (We the people) have contracted with the corporate system unknowingly, unintentionally, and or without full disclosure given. Once you learn the difference, you may have to make a decision for yourself, family, and posterity. That decision may require changes in how you conduct yourself. You will have to undo what has been done to make your Sovereign status known. Major opposition against British control began with The Stamp Act, established by British parliament on March 22, 1765--Taxation without representation, followed by the Declaratory Act, the Boston Massacre of 1770, and the Tea Act passed by Parliament on May 10, 1773 to save the East Indian Company from bankruptcy.

Resistance continued with the Quartering Act established by Parliament on June 2, 1774, requiring American colonists to provide shelter to British troops and horses when requested.

From September 5 to October 25, 1774 Twelve colonies, all but Georgia, sent 56 delegates to Philadelphia to participate in the First Continental Congress. The purpose of the First Continental Congress was to debate and plan a unified response to British policy and actions.

On March 25, 1775, Patrick Henry delivered his "give me liberty or give me death" speech to the Virginia Assembly in Richmond.

Various conflicts took place and blood continued to be shed.

On May 10, 1775, The Second Continental Congress convened in Philadelphia. Delegates from all thirteen colonies were present.

After signing the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, and winning the revolutionary war which ended with the Paris Peace Treaty signed September 3, 1783, all American colonists became free, Sovereign people, endowed with the same rights that the King of England had.

Also, via the Treaty of Paris in September of 1783, King George parted with the Northwest Territory which was unsettled and not yet colonized. The Northwest Ordinance was set in place in July of 1787 to govern the territory until such a time the territory became states united with the initial thirteen.

"... at the Revolution, the sovereignty devolved on the people, and they are truly the sovereigns of the country, but they are sovereigns without subjects, and have none to govern but themselves; the citizens of America are equal as fellow citizens, and as joint tenants in the sovereignty ... In Europe, the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the Prince; here, it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the government; here, never in a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and, at most, stand in the same relation to their sovereign in

Introduction

Philadelphia is the Capitol

The Articles of Confederation
were agreed to by the united states in Congress

INTRODUCTION

Certain members of Congress created the District of Columbia (DC) from portions of two states; Virginia (Virgin) and Maryland (Mary). Physically united together they are "Virgin Mary," to form a more perfect union as assembled on November 15, 1777 and were ratified March 1, 1781. From the time of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, to the time of the Articles of Confederation there was a space of time of sixteen months and eleven days. During this period of time, the several nations, states, countries were sovereign unto themselves as relates to foreign earthly powers.

There was an outstanding debt of 17 million silver Lira from French banks over 21 separate occasions all due on December 1, 1789.

Therefore, a bankruptcy Charter had to be drafted. On September 17, 1787, twelve State delegates approved the Constitution. The States have now become Constitutors.

"Constitutor: In the civil law, one who, by simple agreement, becomes responsible for the payment of another's debt."

--Blacks Law Dictionary 6th Ed.

The States were now liable for the debt owed to the King, but the people of America were not.

The people are not a party to the Constitution because it was never put to them for a vote.

The judge in the Padelford case stated; "But, indeed, no private person has a right to complain, by suit in court, on the ground of a breach of the Constitution. The Constitution, it is true, is a compact, but he is not a party to it. The States are the parties to it. And they may complain. If they do, they are entitled to redress. Or they may waive the right to complain."

--Padelford, Fay & Co. vs. The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Savannah.
14 Georgia 438, 520

"Articles" establish a sovereign nation of people, but all "Constitutions" are bankruptcy charters or compacts.

President Andrew Jackson paid the debt in the 1830's. In 1832, while discussing the Bank Renewal Bill to a delegation of bankers, he said, "You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the Eternal God, I will rout you out."

The Articles of Confederation
are still in operation.

"He [Patrick Henry] boycotted the Constitutional Convention of 1787 because, as he so eloquently put it, "I smell a rat " and suspected the worst: that the independent colonies that had thrived for over a century were to be herded a new "United States".

US Titles and Codes,
in their awkward definitions,
call "DC" the "United States"

The new "United States" includes States such as District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands. It does not include the 50 states united.

i.e. Title 26 Section 7701 Definitions (a) (9) and (10) 42 U.S.C. 405
(2)(c)(vii)

All Titles of the United States Code (USC) are strictly meant for the United States and none of the 50 states of the Union. Each of the 50 states have their own constitutions and laws. See Hepburn v. Ellzey, 2 Cranch, 445, 452, and John Barron v The Mayor and City of Baltimore 32 U.S. 243 (1833). These last two cases clearly state that the United States is not the 50 states of the Union.

Many governments are established by good people having good intentions. But, certain men with bad intentions or another agenda get into government office by some means, lawful or otherwise, find loopholes, revise government and its laws to suit their needs and agenda, and build an empire within government itself. (means "Priest rule")

"A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves generous gifts from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship. The average age of the world's greatest civilizations from the beginning of history, has been about 200 years. During those 200 years, these nations always progressed through the following sequence: from bondage to spiritual faith; from spiritual faith to great courage; from courage to liberty; from liberty to abundance; from abundance to selfishness; from selfishness to complacency; from complacency to apathy; from apathy to dependency; from dependency back again to bondage."

James Madison, the fourth president, known as "The Father of Our Constitution" made the following statement:

This corporate so-called government sees itself as god.

It sets morals and values of those in its jurisdiction without any basis. These values are ever changing at their whim and are influenced by opinion and the media.

Emphasizes religious and social tolerance but discourages Christianity.

It provokes the godly to give up their stand and to go with the crowd.

Homosexuality and abortions are no longer discouraged, but are now protected.

"Thus it is easy to understand how law, instead of checking injustice, becomes the invincible weapon of injustice. It is easy to understand why the law is used by the legislator to destroy in varying degrees among the rest of the people, their personal independence by slavery, their liberty by oppression, and their property by plunder. This is done for the benefit of the person who makes the law, and in proportion to the power he holds."

"...it erases from everyone's conscience the distinction between justice and injustice. No society can exist unless the laws are respected to a certain degree. The safest way to make laws respected is to make them respectable. When law and morality contradict each other, the citizen has the cruel alternative of either losing his moral sense or losing his respect for the law."

No state of Emergency and is not at war

US continues to be in a permanent state of national emergency since March 9, 1933, and possibly as far back as the Civil War --Senate report 93-549 (1973)

Adjournment of Congress sine die a Latin term meaning

On April 15, 1861, President Lincoln reconvened Congress under the Executive branch by proclamation

"without [fixed] day";
(No day is set for reconvening)

Seven southern nation States of America walked out of the Second Session of the Thirty-sixth Congress on March 27, 1861.

In so doing, the Constitutional due process quorum necessary for Congress to vote was (temporarily) lost and Congress was adjourned sine die, or "without day." To some, this meant that there was no lawful quorum to set a specific day and time to reconvene. Some say that according to Robert's Rules of Order, Congress automatically dissolved because there are no provisions within the Constitution allowing the passage of any Congressional vote without a quorum of the States. Keep in mind that Robert's Rules of Order was created and published by Henry Martyn Robert who was born in South Carolina in 1837. He sold a half million copies of his rules by 1914. Those rules were not made a part of the Constitution or any Amendment to the Constitution. According to The Constitution, Congress was only required to meet at least once in every year on a specific date unless changed by law and a smaller number may adjourn from day to day. Therefore, because there were no other provisions, dissolution does not take place unless "the people", the creators thereof, or the posterity thereof, the sovereigns of the states, say so.

Because the King's men did not attend a meeting required by Him does not constitute a loss of the King's kingdom or His government. It just means that such men may loose their heads for not obeying the King.

The corporate government created in 1871 will continue to exist as long as:

1. "state of war" or "emergency" exists (War on Drugs, War on Poverty, War on Terrorism, War on Iraq, etc.),
2. the President does not terminate "martial" or "emergency" powers by Executive Order or decree, or
3. the people do not resist submission and terminate by restoring lawful civil courts, processes and procedures under authority of the "inherent political powers" of the people.

The Fourteenth Amendment for all intents and purposes does not exist. On March 28, 1861 Congress adjourned sine die and never has reconvened de jure.

The original Thirteenth Amendment (no title of nobility), approved by 13 of the 17 states March 12, 1819 and thereby ratified, is the last proper draft of a de jure Amendment but is not recognized by the corporate (de facto) UNITED STATES.

The original 13th Amendment prohibits "Esquires" (Attorneys) from holding positions of public office.

Flag

The United States of America Military Flag

plain and simple--no gold fringe or other ornaments and symbolism attached

Prior to the 1950's, state republic flags were mostly flown, but when a USA flag was flown, usually only at USA facilities, it was one of the following:

1. Military flag --Horizontal stripes, white stars on blue background

Has no fringe, braid (tassel), eagle, ball, spear, etc.

Some say the correct size ratio is 1 x 1.9

2. Civil Flag --Created in 1799 by Secretary of the Treasury Oliver Wolcott. Intended for peace time usage, denoting civil jurisdiction under the Constitution and common law. Has vertical stripes, blue stars on white background--last flown before Civil War with a few exceptions.

Not the original USA Military flag

Some say it is a flag of Admiralty/Maritime type jurisdiction and is not suppose to be used on Land. Others say it's not a flag at all, but fiction.

However, the gold fringe which surrounds the flag gives notice that the American flag has been captured and is now being used by the corporate so-called government to give notice of its jurisdiction.

The flag shown above appears to be a "USA flag" but has one or more of the following:

1. Gold fringe along its borders (called "a badge")
2. Gold braided cord (tassel) hanging from pole
3. Ball on top of pole (last cannon ball fired) Mainly used at induction centers.
4. Eagle on top of pole
5. Spear on top of pole

Some people see them as ornaments but all symbols have a meaning and purpose.

The flag shown above is Not described in Title 4 of USC and therefore is illegal on land except for maybe (1) the President since he is in charge of Naval Forces on high seas, and (2) naval offices and yards.

President Eisenhower settled the debate on the width of the fringe.

The so-called justification for a Naval/Maritime flag to be on land is that all land was under the high water mark at one time even if it was eons ago.

Flags on poles flying at the same height as other flags have equal status. A flag flying higher than the flag below indicates superiority over the flag below. Note that corporate state flags fly below the US flag.

Keep in mind that the states were originally Sovereign over the central government and

Another example of the vertical stripes:

"The Coast Guard Ensign (flag) was first flown by the Revenue Cutter Service in 1799 to distinguish revenue cutters from merchant ships."

This flag was a symbol of law enforcement authority, not Military authority.

Early Flags

only the state flags were flown except in the District of Columbia not exceeding 10 miles square, its territories, forts, dockyards, arsenals, and other needful buildings, such as Post Offices, purchased with the consent of the legislature of the affected state.

(Constitution, Section 8, Clause 17)

The people in the geographic continental USA are at peace but the corporate government continues to be at war to exist, to increase and perpetuate debt, and to enrich others through Defense contracts.

Governing Body

The Free Inhabitants are a government body unto themselves.
Not forced to join a "state"
Not forced to be a citizen of any group.
Not forced to inhabit any territory.
Not forced to join the militia or military.
Not forced to pay un-requested services.

The Northwest territory and possessions were governed by three separate and distinct Branches or Departments equal to each other as to power and control of a segment of government while being on the same playing field laterally in position to each other.

- Legislature (Constitution; Article I)
--can enact positive law
- Executive (Constitution; Article II)

GOVERNING BODY

The President (a Caesar) rules by Executive Order (Unconstitutional)

Congress and the Courts are under the President.

Did you ever wonder why Congress is ignored by the President?

The President is the Chief Executive Officer (C.E.O.) of the government corporation. Impeachment today is nearly impossible, unless it is in the best interest of the controlling bankers and the one-world government elite.

Also, what most people do not realize is that most courts today are legislative courts and not Judicial.

The so-called (corporate) Congress

- Judicial
(Constitution; Article III)
--known as article III courts

The purpose of having three separate and distinct branches at the same level is for checks and balances so that no one man or branch of government has complete power.

The legislative Branch consists of the Senate and Congress.

The purpose of the Senate was originally designed to voice states rights while Congress voiced the peoples rights.

The Senators were chosen by the states and were not elected by the people.

Together, they can come to a conclusion that meets the rights, interests, and benefit of both the state and the people.

Separation of Powers

"To announce that there must be no criticism of the President, or that we are to stand by the President, right or wrong, is not only unpatriotic and servile, but is morally treasonable to the American public."

--Theodore Roosevelt, 1912

"If the representatives of the people betray their constituents, there is then no resource left but in the exertion of that original right of self-defense which is paramount to all positive forms of government, ... if the persons entrusted with supreme power become usurpers, ... The citizens must rush tumultuously to arms, without concert, without system, without resource; except in their courage and despair."

--Federalist #28 - Hamilton

sits by resolution
not by positive law.

Therefore, the position of power is as follows:

1. President (C.E.O of the corporation sits as Caesar
--does not need congressional approval)
2. Legislature (The new Congress and Senate voices Public Opinion)
3. so-called Judicial (Legislative, Article I courts) opionate what's best for the corporate so-called government and the elite
4. Non-existent Judicial (Article III courts) except for Special circumstances that benefit the elite

The top position has control over the second position and the second position has control over the last position vertically and not laterally.

There are no checks and balances unless the President is concerned with a potential revolution based on the outcry of its citizens.

Each puppet that comes into office wears a different costume but ends up serving the same master. (The Masters are the Elite and Bankers operating behind the scenes)

Only two executive orders were overturned:

"The Supreme Court ruled in Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 343 US 579 (1952) that Executive Order 10340 from President Harry S. Truman placing all steel mills in the country under federal control was invalid because it attempted to make law,..."

See: Opinion of Justice Black and Case Law

"...a 1996 order issued by President Clinton that attempted to prevent the U.S. government from contracting with organizations that had strike-breakers on the payroll.[6] Congress may overturn an executive order by passing legislation in conflict with it or by refusing to approve funding to enforce it. In the former, the president retains the power to veto such a decision; however, the Congress may override a veto with a two-thirds majority to end an executive order."

Real Money

Many of the older generations of the American people were taught to write the "S" with two lines through it. The two lines was a derivative of the "U" inside the "S" signifying "Units of Silver". The United States of America silver dollar is the accepted and approved uniform monetary unit (coin standard). The United States of America did not issue paper money until 85 years after its independence from Britain, and when it did, it was backed by silver or gold. Even at that, early Californians refused to accept and use paper currency, especially the people in San Francisco.

Phony Money

Not backed by assets but thrives on faith alone.

Today, all computer programs, stock certificates, financial paper, accounting records, balance sheets and summaries, bills, bonds, Promissory notes, bank paper such as checks, et cetera use the familiar symbol $ having only one line through it to denote the amount of debt considered.

Did you ever wonder where the words "bank" and "currency" come from? Keep in mind that a river has two banks that control a current of water running between them. Therefore, that is what the bankers do, they control the current or flow of money called currency.

"Some people think the Federal Reserve Banks are U.S. government institutions. They are not government institutions. They are private credit monopolies which prey upon the people of the U.S. for the benefit of themselves and their foreign and domestic swindlers and rich and predatory money lenders." Chairman Louis T. McFadden, House Banking and Currency Committee, June 10, 1932.

Federal Reserve is not listed under the Federal Government. They are in the white pages, along with Federal Express, Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC), and any other business. Find out for yourself if all this is true. And then, go to your local law library and look up the case of Lewis vs. US, case #80-5905, 9th Circuit, June 24, 1982. It reads in part: "Examining the organization and function of the Federal Reserve Banks and applying the relevant factors, we conclude that the federal reserve are NOT federal instrumentality's . . . but are independent and privately owned and controlled corporations - federal reserve banks are listed neither as 'wholly-owned' government corporations [under 31 USC Section 846] nor as 'mixed ownership' corporations [under 31 USC Section 856] . . . 28 USC Sections 1346(b), 2671."

The amount of FRN's printed is based upon the corporate government's borrowing or appetite for debt. For example: If the corporate government prints $100 billion in interest-bearing U.S. bonds and takes them to the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve places the $100 billion in a checking account and the government writes checks or prints debt currency against the balance. In other words, this private banking system creates so-called money out of thin air and the bankers get interest on it forever. In addition, new debt and debt currency has to be

"Thomas Jefferson recommended on September 2, 1776, to the Continental Congress, that the United States adopt the silver "Spanish Milled Dollar" called "Pillar Pieces of Eight", as our monetary unit of value, since daily trade was transacted in that coin."

--The United States Mint

A "dollar" was defined by law (Act of April 1792) as 371.25 grains of pure silver, which was the amount contained in a One-Dollar silver coin.

The gold eagle was equivalent to Ten silver dollars and had 247.50 grains of pure gold.

Therefore, 371.25 grains of pure silver was equivalent to 24.75 grains of pure gold; a 15:1ratio.

Coinage started in 1783. The first gold coins were made July 31, 1795 and consisted of 744 half eagles.

Coinage of Silver coins for circulation ended with the 1964 coins.

Under the "free coinage" provision, no charge was to be made for converting gold or silver bullion into coins "weight for weight." At the depositor's option, however, he could demand an immediate exchange of coins for his bullion, for which privilege a deduction of one-half of one percent was to be imposed.

Redeemable Certificates

Although the first paper currency was issued in1862, redeemable certificates were not issued until 1886

Silver Certificates were contracts initially redeemable in face value silver coin or silver bullion. Silver Certificates were released into circulation in 1878, redemption in silver dollars ceased in 1934, last printed in 1957, and redemption in all forms ceased on June 24, 1968.

Gold Certificates were contracts initially redeemable in face value Gold coin or gold bullion. Gold Certificates were released into circulation in 1882 and ended in 1928.

created just to cover the compounding interest. An ideal "Ponzi scheme."

Keep in mind that bonds are IOU's and are to be paid back by the people through their future labor or the labor of their posterity.

That is why wars are created and perpetuated, government bureaucracy and empire building increases, and superfluous spending continues. They create an ongoing and ever increasing debt to enslave the people and their posterity. Debt must be continually created to feed the debt-credit economy system.

The so-called expanding economy always needs new debt notes (FRN's) and therefore more debt must be created. Budgets can never be balanced in this type of system. If the budget is balanced, the economy will collapse because no new FRN's can be printed and no new debt credit created.

The FRB pays 2½ ¢ per FRN note printed whether $1 or $1000. The US in-turn pays FRBinterest indefinitely for each outstanding note or representation of a note. With electronic banking FRN's are created out of nothing and nothing being printed. What a deal!

Central Banking and credit

Beginning in 1963, the words "redeemable in lawful money" and "will pay to the bearer on demand" were removed from future issues of Federal Reserve Notes

Public Law 88-36, approved June 4, 1963 made Silver certificates redeemable for silver bullion in the form of pellets or granulations and not in silver dollars. The exchange could only take place at the U.S. Assay Office in San Francisco up to June 24, 1968. After that, Silver certificates were no longer redeemable and are only legal tender having same value as Federal Reserve Notes.

The silver content of the dimes and quarters was completely eliminated under the Coinage Act of 1965 and the silver content of the half dollars was greatly reduced and or eliminated since then. Coins that no longer have silver content are called "Copper-nickel clad coins" or just "clad coins" and have no intrinsic value.

Banker's Currency

Mints

Although a government mint was approved February 21, 1782, no immediate action was taken. The first mint building was erected in 1792 on Seventh Street near Arch in Philadelphia. The first coin struck was the half disme (half-dime). Fifteen hundred were produced during the month of July 1792 before the mint was completed. File marks on early coins was a mint process of weight adjustment.
--A GUIDE BOOK of UNITED STATES COINS 35th Edition

The Mint was initially a part of the Department of State, became an independent agency in 1799, and became part of the Department of the Treasury in 1873 when the Mint's administrative headquarters moved from Philadelphia to Washington, D.C.

In 1982, the cent was changed from being 95 percent copper and 5 percent zinc to copper plated zinc weighting 20 percent less. The cent is now just like a token.

The Greenback Acts of 1861 allowed the Union (during the Civil War) to print and issue paper currency in 1862 for the first time in US history. Prior to that, the federal government restricted itself to coins. The paper money was not backed with gold or silver but simply with the full faith and credit of the Union government. The ink chosen for the back side was a peculiar green; thereby nicknamed "greenbacks".

The confederate states did the same thing and their currency were called "bluebacks" and "graybacks."

One year later, the 1861 Acts were revoked and replaced with the National Banking Act in 1863. An Act passed on April 12, 1866 authorized the sale of bonds to retire currency called greenbacks.

A piece of paper does not give people the right to walk the earth as one of God's creatures. People have that right without the Constitution, without the Amendments some people call the "Bill of Rights," and without a Birth Certificate.

No Political or Royal figure can give one the right to be free or take that right away. The idea that one is "given" what one already has is an illusion created for the purposes of control, power, and manipulation. Such an idea exists only when people allow it to exist or are ignorant of their rights.

government putting her child and her child's future labor as collateral for the national debt (servitude--slavery). The father or mother can rescind the contract within three business days (Truth-in-Lending).

Since the Birth Certificate neither lists the father as the husband nor lists the wife's acceptance of the father's surname as her own but has the mother's maiden name instead, the baby is considered a BASTARD. Bastards are therefore under the care and control of the Priest Rule (democracy) and can be taken from the mother at any time.

The hospitals receive a fairly large monetary benefit ($3,000, more or less, per child) from the corporate government for having Birth Certificates filled out and signed.

Maintaining Sovereignty

As a result of a king's uncontrolled spending spree, France had severe inflation which resulted in a monetary crisis. A group of people stormed the Bastille in Paris on July 15th 1789, and the French Revolution was born. The 'Rights of Man' was declared on August 26, 1789. By midsummer of 1792, the king was dethroned and the royal family was imprisoned. Since the people no longer had any use for a king and queen, Louis XVI was beheaded on January 21, 1793 and Marie Antoinette was beheaded later that year.

Therefore, it is the people who are really in control. It is intended for government to be the servants and the people to be the masters. It is better for the government to fear the people than the people fear their government.

People become surety for the debt by a number of different ways. One way is by a Birth Certificate when the baby's footprint is placed thereon before it touches the land. The certificate is recorded at a County Recorder, then sent to a Secretary of State which sends it to the Bureau of Census of the Commerce Department. This process converts a man's life, labor, and property to an asset of the US government when this person receives a benefit from the government such as a drivers license, food stamps, free mail delivery, etc. This person becomes a fictional persona in commerce. Bond Servant

To cover the debt in 1933 and future debt, the corporate government determined and established the value of the future labor of each individual in its jurisdiction to be $630,000. A bond of $630,000 is set on each Certificate of Live Birth. The certificates are bundled together into sets and then placed as securities on the open market. These certificates are then purchased by the Federal Reserve and/or foreign bankers. The purchaser is the "holder" of "Title." This process made each and every person in this jurisdiction a bond servant.

of Congress.

Almost anyone can become an elector.
Did not have to be a registered voter or a party member.

Currently, there are
538 elector positions.
It now takes 270 Electoral Votes to win the Presidential Election.

The total number of electors a state can have is equal to that state's total representation in Congress. Less populated states such as Wyoming, North Dakota, and Vermont have at least one Representative and two Senators. Therefore, they have only three electoral votes. California, for instance, with 52 Representatives and two Senators, have 54 electors.

"Numerous constitutional amendments have been introduced in the Congress seeking to alter the Electoral College or replace it with a direct popular vote; however, no proposal has ever passed the Congress." --Wikipedia

Members of Congress or anyone holding any Federal office cannot be an elector based on what the Constitution refers to as:
'trust or profit.'

The Founding Fathers did not intend to have institutionalized party systems such as Democrats, Libertarians, and or Republicans.

"Registering to vote" is an admission that the declarant is subject to the exclusive legislative power of the corporate Congress and is a 14th Amendment citizen residing in federal territory.

"...the right to vote at any election... is denied... except for participation in rebellion, or other crime..." --Section 2 of the 14th Amendment, U.S. Constitution

Rather than remaining a state national, one becomes a U.S. citizen participating in the rebellion by voting in the corporate government system and or signing up for benefits and privileges.

"Stop and think for a moment as to voting. When you vote for an office to be filled in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA or one of its SUB-CORPORATIONS (THE STATE OF TEXAS), you have voted to fill a fictional corporate position designed to represent the CORPORATION, not a political position to represent the people. All elections in the "United States" are nothing more than proxy fights in a board room!"

--Ed: Brannum (Secretary of Privatization; Provisional Government; Republic of Texas)

There are more people receiving government benefits today than ever. Most of these people are Democrats and vote for people who are Democrats. Reason being; the Democratic party provides and creates more benefit programs and services to obtain votes and popularity. Also, there are more people coming from Mexico, legally or illegally, amnesty or not, who know that the benefits are mostly created by Democrats and will always vote for the Democrats or convince others to do so. As these numbers increase, it will be very difficult for any non-democrat to win an election.

"The elite and the major media have the people pitting the democrats against the republicans or vise versa.

Common Law
(Law not written)

Common Law is based on custom and usage and includes the Magna Carta and The great Charter of the Forest

Common Law has two basic requirements:

1. Do not Offend Anyone
2. Honor all contracts

The 7th Amendment guarantees a trial by jury according to the rules of the common law when the value in controversy exceeds Twenty dollars [in silver specie; not FRN's]

"When injustice becomes law, resistance becomes duty."
- Thomas Jefferson

Civil Law

based on the Roman Civil Law

Covers a vast number of volumes of text that even attorneys can't absorb or comprehend such as:

1. Regulations
2. Codes
3. Rules
4. Statutes

There are now over 60 million of these so-called laws on the books. Keep in mind "ignorance of the law is no excuse" Everyone must be guilty of something. The more so-called laws, the more revenue generated.

"The more corrupt the State, the more numerous the laws."

--Cornelius Tacitus (c. 55-117 A.D.)

"The more numerous the laws, the more corrupt the state."

--Bastiat law (1936-)

Prior to bankruptcy of 1933

"Public Law"

Now the so-called courts administer "Public Policy" through the "Uniform Commercial Code" (instituted in 1967)

Public Policy and UCC

Constitution

Supreme Law of the land restricting a central government, appointed and elected officials, and their staff.

The "organic" Constitution and its amendments are created by the states united to institute, restrict, and restrain a limited central government and to protect the people from such central government from infringing on the peoples God-given rights.

Protected Rights List of Cases

No stare decisis

Means no precedent binds any court, because they have no law standard of absolute right and wrong by which to measure a ruling—what is legal today may not be legal tomorrow.

So-called "court decisions" are administrative opinions only and are basically decided on the basis of "What is best for the corporate government."

Most so-called laws today don't protect you against them, but protects them against you.

Judicial Courts with real Judicial Officers and real Juries who can judge the law
as well as the facts
Jury decisions cannot be reversed by the judge

The so-called courts are actually
Corporate Arbitration Boards
Consisting of an Arbitrator
(so-called "Judge") and sometimes a panel of corporate employees
(so-called "Juries")
Panel decisions (recommendation)
can be reversed by the Arbitrator

Judges

(No black robes)

The judicial officer is actually a coordinator who sits in on behalf of the people, for the good of the people, who swears by full oath of office to abide by and uphold the Constitution, and is there to give presenters and counselors equal opportunity to present their case, with fairness and un bias to all, whether it is pertaining to a controversy or one suspected of a crime or injustice, to produce and provide an impartial and fair trial or suite in Law by bringing forth the facts and the law to be judged by the people who are peers.

The people are the ultimate "judges" of both the law and the facts.

The so-called judge, a corporate "black-robe"referee, an actor (acting judge), on a fictitious stage, sitting under a gold or yellow fringe flag, becomes the "captain" or "master" of that ship or enclave and has absolute power to make the rules at his whim as he goes; all the while talking to or about the fictitious PERSON.

The so-called judge will sometimes not allow all of the facts to be heard or the so-called law examined because of his bias or is following orders of the corporate so-called government who may even want to have the case sealed from the public.

If one does not conform to the judge's wishes, the judge, without proper cause, will send the non-conformist to a psychiatric ward for evaluation (intimidation) and sometimes left there to be drugged and not released until one is willing to conform to the judge's bias.

This has happened many times in the latter years and has been personally witnessed by Myself concerning friends.

Common Law Court
is a "Court of Record" that proceeds according to Common Law, keeps a record of the proceedings, has power to fine or imprison, and the tribunal is independent of the magistrate.

The first ten articles of amendment to the constitution are sometimes referred to as "Bill of Rights" which is incorrect. They are not a "Bill" but are simply "amendments."

The actual "Bill of Rights" was a declaration in 1689 by King William and Queen Mary to their loyal subjects of the British crown.

Due Process is required

Due Process is optional--Sometimes Gestapo-like tactics without reservation.

Innocent until proven guilty

"No Bill Of Attainder or Ex-post Facto Law, shall be passed."

--Constitution, in Article 1, Section 9, Paragraph 3

"Guilty" until proven "not guilty"
(Especially, when faced with issues relating to the corporate government, its agents, and or its highwaymen.)
The so-called judge will ask if one is "guilty" or "not guilty."
Always claim to be "innocent."
A "plea" enters one into a binding contract with the so-called court.

Jurors judge the law as well as the facts

Jurors are the last bastion of hope to free one from tyrannical or unjust laws imposed by government.

Jury nullification

"Jury nullification occurs when a jury returns a verdict of "not guilty" despite the common belief that the defendant is guilty of the violation charged. The jury in effect nullifies a law that it believes is immoral, unconstitutional or is wrongly applied to the defendant whose fate it is charged with deciding. Traditionally jurors are free to disregard the judge if they feel he is part of the system of oppression. Jury nullification is an essential protection for citizens against governmental tyranny." --John Tiffany; AmericanFreePress.net

The judge instructs the jurors to try only the facts (not the code, statute, et cetera).

The judge usually gives the statute, regulation, code, rule, etc. that will most likely convict the defendant.

If there is any dispute with the so-called law, the judge will declare "I say what the law is".

If there is any more dispute with the law, the judge will say, "I will hold you in contempt if you continue in this manner."

Crime

A crime is an offence against a public law. This word, in its most general signification, comprehends all offences but, in its limited sense, it is confined to felony.

1 Chitty, Gen. Pr. 14.

2. The term misdemeanor includes every offence inferior to felony, but punishable by indictment or by-particular prescribed proceedings.
3. The term offence, also, may be considered as, having the same meaning, but is usually, by itself, understood to be a crime not indictable but punishable, summarily, or by the forfeiture of, a

All crimes are considered

Commercial crimes.

"Any of the following types of crimes (Federal or State): Offences against the revenue laws; burglary; counterfeiting; forgery; kidnapping; larceny; robbery; illegal sale or possession of deadly weapons; prostitution (including soliciting, procuring, pandering, white slaving, keeping house of ill fame, and like offenses); extortion; swindling and confidence games; and attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or compounding any of the foregoing crimes. Addiction to narcotic

Burn's Just. Misdemeanor.

4. Crimes are defined and punished by statutes and by the common law. Most common law offences are as well known, and as precisely ascertained, as those which are defined by statutes; yet, from the difficulty of exactly defining and describing every act which ought to be punished, the vital and preserving principle has been adopted, that all immoral acts which tend to the prejudice of the community are punishable by courts of justice.

Judge Earl Johnson, Jr.

"...there simply is too much law (government) to even function - we cannot get out of our own way, we have tied ourselves in knots - when we were supposed to have a limited government and the purpose of the Constitution was to tie government down to the EXPRESS powers given it. There simply is nothing left that government does not touch, have its hands on, and has not made a mess of. More law, more government will not save us - they are the problem." --from an article written in 2006 by Attorney Gary Zerman, titled: "South Dakota Government Acted In Concert Against The People"

Most courts have become the collection agency of the corporate government system for the debt created by said system to be paid in part by the people who come before the so-called court.

Lawful determination Judicial determination

"The people's one supreme Court is the county Court of record; the highest Court in the Land. Once it rules, the United States Supreme Courts, Federal or State, can not question the ruling; read the 7th amendment. The State and federal Courts are inferior tribunals to We the People's one supreme Court. The one supreme Court exist wherever the People convene it! ...the People have agreed to convene it at the county seat and the county judge is elect[ed] by the people as the administrator of their one supreme Court of Record. He makes no judicial ruling. He is only there to keep the Court open and see that it is run orderly and enforce the judgments of the Court of the People. When the jury is called and has been sworn from among the People they are the twelve justices sitting as the one supreme Court of Record for the People of that county."

Thomas Jefferson worried about that the Courts would overstep their authority and instead of interpreting the law would begin making law, an oligarchy, the rule of few over many.

Legal determination

Prisons for incarceration

PRISONS FOR PROFIT

To Protect Society

The responsibility, accountability, and liability for incarceration belongs to the state.

Inmates are not merchandise to be sold or used for profit.

A Commercial Business

More and more prisons today are privately owned and run as a profit making commercial enterprise creating products and services for sale. It is believed that many judges hold stock or an interest in these privatized prisons. These commercially run prisons do not have the best interest of the Inmates or Staff in mind but the bottom line--PROFIT. They need a continuous supply of low-cost labor (slaves) to produce products in order to increase profits. Even when the crime rate is down, these privateers lobby the appropriate governmental and judicial authorities to increase the incarceration rate in order to add to their already substantial profit taking. There are no checks and balances for monitoring this type of system.

To name a few privateers:

- Corrections Corporation of America (CCA)--founded in 1983, based in Nashville, Tennessee, now operates more than 77 facilities across the USA
- Wackenhut Services, Inc. of Florida
- Wackenhut Corrections Corp.(WCC)-misappropriated over $700,000 of funds in Texas, which were allocated by that state for drug rehabilitation programs.

Directors consists of former members of the FBI and CIA.

- Becon-Wackenhut Inc. of Florida

The initial purpose of prisons is to protect the people from criminals.

Prisons were also created to punish the guilty for offensive crimes against victims of such crimes.

The amount of punishment was to fit the crime.

There are too many innocent people, in recent times, sent to prison.

Today, ordinary people, innocent people, non-criminals are found guilty of so-called crimes and are sent to prison as a result of excessive needless so-called laws, overly zealous, ambitious, and or corrupt prosecutors and judges.

Many people, today, are sent to prison, for one reason or another, to silence them for speaking and sharing information one would find on this web page.

Today, many people are not receiving a fair, impartial, and unbiased trial and or not receiving a trial by their peers, especially if it affects the pocket books of such prosecutors and judges such as a tax issue or revenue issue.

- U.S. Corrections Corporation, a private company headquartered in Louisville, Kentucky--since 1986
- Rehabilitative Industries & Diversified Enterprises Inc. (PRIDE), a firm based in Clearwater, Florida, now manages all 53 Florida prison work programs as a for profit operation. PRIDE has made a $4 million profit in one year. Many states considering privatization of prison industries are studying the PRIDE operation. PRIDE products range from optical and dental items to modular office systems.

UNICOR maintains factories in every Federal Prison in the country. Nationwide sales of "PRISON PRODUCED PRODUCTS" in year 2000 was 8.9 billion dollars. Some products produced are; office furniture, high tech military cable and wiring systems, mattress and box springs, camouflage military uniforms, sheets, towels, pillow cases, brooms, mops, et cetera. UNICOR has now partnered with Spire, an American solar company, to manufacture photovoltaic modules and systems.

Best Western International, Inc, a major hotel chain, employs over thirty Arizona prison workers to operate the hotel's telephone reservation system. Trans World Airlines, Inc. hires young offenders from the Ventura Center Training School in California to handle "over the phone" flight reservations.

Amendment IV

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized."

Warrantless and unreasonable searches in homes, airports, corporate government facilities, on the roadways (highways), etc.

Government may search and seize Americans' papers and effects without probable cause to assist in so-called terror investigation. --Patriot Act

In Nazi Germany, It started with:

"Where's your papers?"
or "Your papers, please?!"

History repeats itself. Now, it is:

"ID, please?"

The I.D. called "Real ID" with biometrics is on the horizon and about to be implemented if not already.

Amendment V

"...nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation."

"Man can live and satisfy his wants only by ceaseless labor; by the ceaseless application of his of his faculties to natural resources. This process is the origin of property. But it is also true that a man may live and satisfy his wants by seizing and consuming the products of the labor of others. This process is the origin of plunder." "...the proper purpose of law is to use the power of its collective force to stop this fatal tendency to plunder instead of work. All the measures of the law should protect property and punish plunder."

"Thus it is easy to understand how law, instead of checking injustice, becomes the invincible weapon of injustice. It is easy to understand why the law is used by the legislator to destroy in varying degrees among the rest of the people, their personal independence by slavery, their liberty by oppression, and their property by plunder. This is done for the benefit of the person who makes the law, and in proportion to the power he holds."

--1848 "THE LAW" by Claude Frederic Bastiat, a French economist, statesman, author, and philosopher.

Property is constantly, currently, and consistently being taken for alleged taxes without due process and without just compensation.

Land and property is now being taken by EMINENT DOMAIN for purposes not originally intended.

All kinds of fees and penalties are being extorted from the people for so-called laws. The people can no longer win in court against the corporate government system. If one tries, one may be held "in contempt of court" and fined

The Senate examined exactly what powers they had granted the President by amending the Trading With the Enemy Act on March 9, 1933, they concluded that: "Under these powers the president may: seize property; organize and control the means of production; seize commodities; assign military forces abroad; institute martial law [actually: Martial Rule]; seize and control all transportation and communication; regulate the operation of private industry; restrict travel, and in a plethora of particular ways, control the lives of all American citizens."

--Senate Report 93-549.

Amendment VI

Government may jail Americans indefinitely without a trial. --Patriot Act

"In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury..., and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense." (does not say "attorney")

So-called Government may monitor federal prison jailhouse conversations between attorneys and clients, and deny counsel to Americans accused of crimes.

Fascism police-state tactics and methods, similar to Nazi Germany

"The privileges and immunities clause of the Fourteenth Amendment protects very few rights because it neither incorporates any of the Bill of Rights nor protects all rights of individual citizens. See Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873). Instead, this provision protects only those rights peculiar to being a citizen of the federal government; it does not protect those rights which relate to state citizenship." --Jones v. Temmer, 829 Fed. Supp. 1226 (1993)

"state" when used by itself refers to the "Republics" of The united states of America

In U.S. Titles and Codes "State" refers to U.S. possessions such as Puerto Rico, Guam, etc.

All of the states are "Republics"

e.g. "California republic"
"California state"
or just "California"
abbreviated "Calif."

Each state is a sovereign nation unto itself; free and independent

The book "Golden Fleece in Nevada" written by Judge Clel Georgetta states "In 1780, the Continental Congress adopted a resolution requesting the thirteen original states to surrender to the central government (the Confederation) all the lands they claimed in the territory west of their original boundaries [west of the Appalachian Mountains] to the Mississippi, so such lands could be sold to private interests for money to pay off the debt incurred by the Revolutionary War, and then the area would be divided into new states to be admitted into the Confederation on the same basis as the original states." Judge Georgetta continues "The thirteen independent sovereign states were first joined together in a Federal Union known as 'The Confederation' and in 1781 ratified 'The Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union.' Those Articles contain the following words: Article II. Each state retains its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress

All States are corporations incorporated with the federal corporation

e.g. "State of California"
corporate California
California State
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
CA

Politicians and the legislature of each state formed a new so-called government (de facto) and incorporated it into the corporate US commercial corporation a.k.a. UNITED STATES, Inc. and are therefore under its jurisdiction. This so-called government is actually a limited-liability corporation (Limited Liability Act of 1851), chartered in a private, military, international, commercial, admiralty/maritime jurisdiction, entitled "STATE OF..." as evidenced by, inter alia, the change in the seal and the flag and the creation of a new constitution. Each "STATE OF..." collects whole life insurance premiums, known as "taxes," for the International Monetary Fund, based, inter alia, upon the Limited Liability Act of 1851 and the bankruptcy of United States of 1933.

"In this state" or "within this state" includes assembled. Article IX. ...provides also that no state shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the United States. There can be no doubt that the purpose of guaranteeing each state its complete sovereignty was to waylay all fear of joining the organization. It was those words of guaranty in the Articles that the various states joined the 'Confederation' in order to form a Central Government to perform certain functions for all the states as a group. It was to be a central government with very limited power." written by Dick Carver, Nye County Commissioner, member of the Nevada State Land Use Planning Advisory Council

"I am neither a "Resident," nor a "Non-resident," neither "in this state," nor "within this state" and certainly not a UNITED STATES citizen. If I am to be categorized or described, one can consider Me a living soul in a flesh and blood man on the land, a free inhabitant, a California native."
--Jack; Slevkoff

"We the people" created the states (the republics) and are Sovereign over the states.

Certain powers are granted to the state, not by the state.

A document made by the people to create a state purposely limits the powers granted to the state; said document does not measure the rights of those governed, but is to assure that those rights are not trampled upon.

Sovereigns of California are sometimes referred to as "California nationals." In Texas, "Texas nationals," etc.

Likewise, "We the People" made the document that created the government of the United States of America (USA) and are therefore sovereign over the USA government.

Also, people from each individual state of the states united participated in the creation of the document that created the government of the united states of America with limited power. The people from each state accepted and gave their approval with the conditions that each individual state gave up only certain portions of their power on an equal basis but retained all other rights and powers in the states and in the people. Thereby, the states and the people in each state retained their Sovereignty over the government of the united states of America.

The creator is over the created, not vise versa all federal areas lying within the exterior boundaries of the state. --Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 82.04.200 found at:

<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=82.04.200>

The citizens of the corporate States, federal areas, are "subjects" and are called "Residents"
Derived from "res" meaning "the thing" and "ident" meaning "identify." Therefore, a "resident" is "a thing identified."
And, "President" is "P-resident," meaning "Principal resident" enjoined in the federal area.

"Nonresident" means any person whose residence is outside "this state" and who is temporarily sojourning "WITHIN THIS STATE". [1961 c 12 §46.04.360. Prior: 1959 c 49 § 37; prior: (i) 1943 c 153 § 1, part; 1937 c 188 § 1, part; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6312-1, part. (ii) 1937 c 189 § 1, part; RRS § 6360-1, part.] (emphasis added).

All state governments today are corporations, not sovereign states.

The corporate states were created by incorporation into the corporate federal United States as corporate entities appearing to be similar to and overlaying the republics so as not to rouse suspicion. Likewise, the corporate states created political subdivisions of the corporate state such as COUNTY OF FRESNO being similar to Fresno county but is not; COUNTY OF MADERA being similar to Madera county but is not; etc.

The corporate States are controlled by the corporate US government by its purse strings such as grants, funding, matching funds, revenue sharing, disaster relief, etc.

Section 666 of the Federal Social Security Code (42 USC §666) preempts Idaho's Free Exercise of Religion Act (FERA) and similar acts of other states. Section 666 appears to mandate that every State is to force everyone to identify with a Social Security Number (SSN) in order to obtain a professional license, occupational license, recreational license, driver's license, and or marriage license in spite of ones religious beliefs based on Revelation, Chapter 13, of the Bible which warns of a beast that requires every person to identify with a number in order to engage in a livelihood. The Bible clearly states that one is not to accept a number whereby one cannot buy or sell without it.

Indirect tax verses Direct

In some states, an indirect tax is implemented on certain specific items. Other states may not have any indirect tax, while others may have an indirect tax on all items sold by corporations. Although "direct taxes" are unconstitutional, "indirect taxes" are acceptable. A man or woman still has a choice to pay the tax or not. For example: Do not buy cigarettes if you do not want to pay the indirect tax. a "direct tax" is appropriate only by means of apportionment under certain circumstances.

Sales Tax and Sales Permit

Only corporations are required to pay sales tax. The sales tax is what corporations are required to pay as creatures of the corporate government. But they got ordinary people volunteering to pay up front sales tax on their behalf directly. They also got other companies to collect sales tax up front as well by making a "Sales Permit" mandatory to enter corporate trade shows. A "Sales Permit" is a license and makes one obligated to collect taxes and to turn them over to the corporate government. Out of ignorance, most companies volunteer to obtain a license even though it is voluntary. Most government people enforcing Sales licenses assume every company is required to collect sales tax. That is what the majority believes.

California state republic Flag

"A nation unto itself"

This flag was first flown on June 14, 1846 in Sonoma, California, by American settlers in California who revolted against Mexican rule in California and proclaimed California an independent republic.

The short-lived revolution ended on July 9, 1846. Eventually the war with Mexico ended May 30, 1848 resulting in a treaty signed at Guadalupe Hidalgo, Mexico, whereby, Mexico gave up "Alta California" (Upper California). Baja California being the lower California. Monterey was the capital of Alta California under Spanish and Mexican rule since 1775.

being incorporated within the corporate UNITED STATES

This flag design was adopted as the official flag of California in 1911 with minor changes in design from time to time. The last known design change was made by prominent California historian and artist Donald Kelley in 1953

This flag is seen today in the corporate STATE OF CALIFORNIA usually with a gold fringe around it or with gold tassels, or with a ball or spear on top of the pole. The Grizzly bear design on the flag is based on Charles Nahl's rendition on paper and in sculpture.

In California, the US corporate military flag is required to be flown above the corporate bear, and red stripe from "Old Glory" The animal silhouette was a rendition of the California Grizzly. However, the silhouette did not actually look like a bear. A 4-inch strip of red flannel from a petticoat worn by Mrs. Sears was sewn onto the bottom to produce a red stripe. Blackberry juice was used for the words 'California Republic' in Roman letters. The whole flag was about three by five feet.

Some people believe it was a gold star and bear, But, I did not find anything to substantiate that claim.

The corporate STATE OF CALIFORNIA is actually a fiction, overlaying the original California state, a republic.

Government buildings of the original state, government buildings of the original counties, and buildings of the original government of the united states of America have been abandoned and become museums until such a time the original government is re-established and or re-convened.

California's original constitution was created by 48 delegates from 10 districts of California who were called to convene a Constitutional convention on September 1, 1849 in the Colton Hall building in Monterey. Said constitution was signed October 13, 1849, adopted by the people of California and went into effect on November 13, 1849. Said 1849 constitution designated San Jose as the capital. California was admitted into the union as a Republic on September 9, 1850.

The people created the original state constitution to give the government limited powers and to act on behalf of, and for the people.

Four days after being admitted, the President said "...which, on due examination, is found to be republican in its form of government..."

Restoring The Republic

The original constitution was revised and adopted by the corporate State of California on May 7, 1879

It has been revised many times hence.

On April 24, 1950, the U.S. District Court of Appeal, Second District, Division 2, State of California, with Justice Wilson presiding in a case titled "SEI FUJI v. THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA" decided that the Law of the Land is the United Nations Charter

Debt

DEBT

None!

Wouldn't it be nice to be completely out of debt, personally, and have a stash of gold and silver besides?

"The budget should be balanced, the Treasury should be refilled, Public Debt should be reduced, the arrogance of officialdom should be tempered and controlled, and the assistance to foreign lands should be curtailed lest Rome become bankrupt. People must again learn to work instead of living on public assistance." - Cicero, 55 B.C.

Trillions of Dollars

First bankruptcy was in 1863

In 1865 the total debt was $2,682,593,026.53

A portion was funded by 1040 Bonds to run not less than 10 nor more than 40 years at an interest rate of 6%

When a government goes bankrupt, it loses its sovereignty.

In 1933 the U.S. declared bankruptcy, as expressed in Roosevelt's Executive Orders 6073, 6102, 6111, and 6260, House Joint Resolution 192 (Public Law 73-10) of June 5, 1933 (31 U.S.C. 463) confirmed in Perry v. TAXATION

Limits on taxation

No limit on taxation

Direct taxes such as "Income taxes" are unlawful Income taxes are legal when properly applied and are ever increasing.

Indirect taxes such as excise tax and import duties are lawful

Other taxation's such as inheritance taxes are legal when properly applied.

IRS's 1040 forms originated from the 1040 Bonds used for funding Lincoln's War 1863, first year income tax was ever used in history of US. The taxes were collected to help finance the civil war.

The IRS is a collection arm of the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve was created by the Bank of England in 1913 and is owned by foreign investors. The IRS is not listed as a government agency like other government agencies.

The IRS does not have franking privileges. The IRS has to pay for postage.

Benefits

BENEFITS

Unalienable rights

(are "not-a-lien-able" condition) meaning "can not be liened"

in other words,

"cannot be infringed upon"

(rights that can not be taken away or lost)

Inalienable rights

(are "in-a-lien-able" condition)

Government given rights that are really Privileges.

Can be taken away at any time

Composed of:

God given rights,
Substantial rights,
Fundamental rights,
Natural rights (breathe, locomotion etc.)

Persons (legal fictions) have only inalienable rights, which may be surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights.

So-called Benefits are as follows:

Flesh and blood people have unalienable rights granted to them by their Creator, which can never be sold, given away, or contracted away.

1. Social Security Applying for and receiving an "SS card" makes one a member of the "US DC Communist Party" and is eligible for benefits of the party membership. Since one is eligible for benefits, 100% of ones earnings (wages) belongs to the party and the party determines what they will keep and how much you will get back. (You paid all your working life and there are no guarantees that there will be money for you to help in retirement)

Unalienable vs Inalienable

The Supreme Court ruled that Congress has no constitutional authority whatsoever to legislate for the social welfare of the worker. The result was that when Social Security was instituted, it had to be treated as strictly voluntary.

Right to Enjoy:

1. Life
2. Liberty
3. pursuit of Happiness
4. full property ownership.

2. Medicare
3. Medicaid
4. Grants
5. Disaster relief
6. Food Stamps
7. Licenses and Registration (Permission)
8. Privileges only, no Rights

9. Experimentation on citizens without their consent.

Corporate government takes your money and gets credit for helping others. Politicians in return create more such programs to get more votes. Eventually there is no more to collect and give. Everyone becomes takers and there are no givers. The government then collapses within. That is why democracy never survives.

Created by statute to keep track of the corporate government's holdings which are applied as collateral to the increasing debt. The written records are a continuation of the Records are also kept by Sovereigns such as in a family Bible

Churches, in the old days were also known to keep records.

"Doomsday Book" which keeps track of the Crown of England's holdings. The "Doomsday Book" originated as a written record of the conquered holdings of king William, which was later the basis of his taxes and grants.

Whenever something is registered it is actually being put into the kings domain. The word "registered" is derived from the word "regis" which means "kingly." Therefore, recording a document today is the same as registering it and putting it into the kings domain.

Property recorded or registerd at the recorders office makes the corporate de facto government "holders in due course." Anything registered can be taken away at any time; that includes cars, guns, and your home.

Your TV is not recorded there, therefore you are "holder in due course" for the TV.

2. Married by a minister or pastor constitutes a marriage, and/or
3. Living together for more than 7 years constitutes a marriage.

A ceremony was optional. The seven years is only encountered when one of the two requirements for common law marriage was missing, presumably the consent of the father. The seven years is the law of Jubilee which is the forgiveness of the obligation to allow the marriage to be lawful.

Definitions from
BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY, 4th Ed:

"license"

"The permission by competent authority to do an act which without such permission, would be illegal."

"marriage license"

"A license or permission granted by public authority to persons who intend to intermarry."

What if you apply
and the State says "no"?

"Intermarry" is "Miscegenation" were married without a marriage license. They simply recorded their marriages in their Family Bibles.

"Miscegenation"

"mixture of races; marriage between persons of different races, as between a white and a Negro."

Some marriage licenses will actually state that its purpose is for interracial marriage.

"marriage certificate"

"An instrument which certifies a marriage, and is executed by the person officiating at the marriage; it is not intended to be signed by the parties, but is evidence of the marriage.

It seems that a certificate would be more appropriate than a license.

Mortgage

Latin word "Mort" means 'death' and "gage" means 'pledge'. Therefore, a mortgage is a death pledge. Most people never really own their house, even unto death. End up paying more than twice the initial cost of the house. A mortgage is designed so that someone else will make money on you during your lifetime.

You create the money

Free Enterprise

The people engage in free enterprise by trading ones labor for another's labor.

There is no filing, registering, or obtaining permission or licensing from any government structure.

The people are responsible for themselves and each other.

The people do not rely on insurance to overcome irresponsibility and capriciousness.

CORPORATISM

Composed of, encourages, and creates a corporate structure of corporations and big businesses that use people as human resources to further its goal to grow and expand and become more powerful thereby eliminating competition and becoming more controlling.

The thing created (the corporation) becomes more powerful than the creator (man) who created it. Man is no longer free but is subservient (a slave) to the corporate structure. The corporate structure needs to reduce the wages of its human resources to decrease cost to increase profit to keep growing.

Corporations eat each other and grow bigger and more powerful thereby allowing fewer persons having big egos controlling the lives of the common folk from cradle to grave.

Corporations have no feelings. Corporations primary purpose is to grow and are thereby less responsible and less sympathetic towards the people, thereby rely on and utilize insurance or other resources such as the corporate government to bail themselves out of irresponsible critical situations.

Most often, people start with a free enterprise but choose to be incorporated into the government structural system. To incorporate is to become a part of something bigger. Therefore, corporations are creatures created by the so-called government and are no longer a free enterprise. Corporations become big uncontrollable monsters who eventually control government by putting their people into office to maintain control. These monsters got out of their cages when they made fictions such as corporations equal with people by calling them "persons" having the rights equal to people. Most corporations eat each other up and become huge monsters, thereby creating monopolies that stifle "capitalism" in its true meaning.

	Corporations do not want competition. They want to eliminate competition using their power and politicians they purchased. They want to capture the system and use it for their benefit.

California Portland Cement Co. (1942), 50 C.A. 2d 684, 123 P.2d 947.

Bovier's Law Dictionary describes TRANSPORTATION as: "punishment. In the English law, this punishment is inflicted by virtue of sundry statutes; it was unknown to the common law. 2 H. Bl. 223. It is a part of the judgment or sentence of the court, that the party shall be transported or sent into exile. 1 Ch. Cr. Law, 789 to 796: Princ. of Pen. Law, c. 4 2."

"Guest"--One who comes along for pleasure, recreational, or private reasons without cost or without having to pay.

"Passenger"--One who pays, employs, or hires someone to transport themselves to another location

"Traveling on the common way"--The act of locomotion and conveyance on the common way for private, personal, and recreational purposes

"Driving on the road"--The act of propelling a motor vehicle on the roadway or highway by one who is employed or hired to transport goods or passengers.

"Control"--The act of having power over locomotion or to direct locomotion.

"Drive"-The act engaging locomotion and control of an automobile, bus, or truck by one who is employed or hired to transport goods or passengers. Operating Motor Vehicles on the roadways for commercial purposes.

"Controlling the Car"--The act of having power over a car in a safe manner as it is propelled.
"Steering the car"--Directing the path of the car as it is propelled.

"Driving the truck"-The act of controlling or steering a truck by one who is employed or hired to transport for commercial purposes.

"Traveler"--One who uses any means of locomotion, from point to point, for private and personal reasons, convenience, and pleasure.

"Driver"--One who is for hire or employed to transport goods or passengers upon the roadways and highways.

Are you a Driver?

"Traveling" and "Locomotion" are unalienable rights

"Driving" is a licensed privilege that can be taken away at any time.

"Travelers"--A number of people who use some form of locomotion, from point to point, for private and personal reasons, convenience, and pleasure.

"TRAFFIC"--. Commerce, trade, sale or exchange of merchandise, bills, money and the like.

Federal Districts

The corporate de facto government utilizes the "ZIP-Code" system to prove that one actually resides in a "federal district of the District of Columbia". This is why the IRS and other government agencies (federal, state, and political subdivisions thereof) assert jurisdiction by sending letters and notices with zip codes required. They claim that this speeds up the mail, but this is a sly and subtle deception. It is also prima facie evidence that one is "a subject" of corporate U.S. Congress, a "citizen of the District of Columbia", and is a "resident" in one of the several States although not a state Citizen or delivering mail for lower prices, but the U.S. Government challenged Spooner with legal measures, eventually forcing him to cease operations in 1851."

Guns

Sovereigns have a right to own and use guns--"Right to bear arms" against "enemies foreign and domestic".

GUNS

This government wants to disarm the Citizens so as to have complete control and power. Every tyrannical government in the past has taken away the guns to prevent any serious opposition or rebellion. History continues to repeat itself because the new generations who come along don't know or tend to forget about the past and will say it will not happen here.

Amendment II

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

--Constitution for the united states of America

"The Second Amendment (Amendment II) to the United States Constitution is the part of the United States Bill of Rights that declares a well-regulated militia as "being necessary to the security of a free State" and prohibits infringement of "the right of the people to keep and bear arms.""

"In United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542 (1875), the Supreme Court held that the Second Amendment is only a limit on the power of the federal government, but some people contend that it also limits the power of each State.[4] In the landmark decision in District of Columbia v. Heller (2008), the Supreme Court ruled a Washington, D.C. ordinance, that was an outright firearm ban, to be unconstitutional. In doing so, the Court identified a personal right of self defense protected by the Second Amendment.

An oath most Americans have taken in times past,
some even to this day:

"I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic"

Some oaths today have been manipulated and changed to reflect service to what the President requests and for service to what the United Nations desires; being completely different than the Constitutional oath.

The real problem is that these "US citizens," so-called Americans dressed as soldiers, are not protecting the people from domestic enemies within, but have joined with the enemy. The enemy are now in high places and have taken over this country, usurping the powers within, while ignoring the Constitution, and some do not even take a valid oath based on the Constitution,

"Military men are just dumb stupid animals to be used as pawns in foreign policy."

Armed Forces

"I believe:that being in the Militia, based on the Declaration of Independence, declares and maintains one's Sovereignty, but joining the US military, no matter which department (Navy, Army, Marines, etc), one loses all rights and privileges and becomes the property of the US so-called government to do with what they may; therefore a subject (slave). Everyone in the military have volunteered even if and when summoned under the draft system. When they ask for everyone to take a step forward or backward, or give an oath, it is a voluntary action. At that moment, is when one is actually inducted. The one that does nothing or the opposite maintains all rights and privileges. Yes, they will try to persuade you or make you look bad in front of everyone else, and may even yell at you. But, if you maintain your stance, in spite of it all, you will most likely be released; cognizant of your belief and understanding."

"I believe that America is the greatest country in history and for good reasons, but America has been changing and not for the better. Our free society has been falling prey to a more repressive system with methods for the increased control of people. The return of groups and individuals to the controlling ideology of Imperialism and Marxism using the structures of Corporation, Socialism and Democracy. The result is that this nation's foundational principles based on the ideology of Liberty are now in danger of extinction."

"Make yourselves sheep and the wolves will eat you" -- Benjamin Franklin

"You will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not so costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance for survival. There may be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no chance of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves." -- Winston Churchill

"Education is the best security for maintaining liberties, and, a nation of well-informed men who have been taught to know and prize the rights which God has given them cannot be enslaved. It is in the region of ignorance that tyranny reigns."-- Benjamin Franklin, Autobiography

"It will be of little avail to the people that the laws are made by men of their own choice, if the laws be so voluminous that they cannot be read, or so incoherent that they cannot be understood; if they be repealed or revised before they are promulgated, or undergo such incessant changes that no man who knows what the law is today can guess what it will be tomorrow." -- James Madison, Federalist no. 62, February 27, 1788

"If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquility of servitude better than the animating contest of freedom, go home from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you, and may posterity forget ye were our countrymen."-- Samuel Adams

"There are many people involved in the fight to return our country to a sovereign nation and there are many people who are just plain sick and tired of the "governmental" controls placed on our every day lives. The "government" controls our lives via taxation, levies, traffic tickets, code enforcement, licensing, permits, registrations, inspections, the mails, banking, child protective services, airport "in"-security, etc.... They listen to our telephone conversations, read our e-mails, rifle through our belongings during roadside searches and now they can come into our homes without a search warrant - even when we're not home. Troops are already being trained to stop us on the highways and demand to see our "papers please." Does any of this sound remotely familiar? Think it can't happen here? When is enough going to be enough? At what point do we say "NO MORE!?"--Ann Sims 2003

"Warning to Americans from a Russian Emigre. ... I came to the United States in the '70's from the very possible future of America - Russia. The longer I live in this country the more ominous signs of the Soviet Union I see around me. I feel like I am on the trip "Back to the Future" - The United States of Socialist Republics. ..." -- Anonymous

"Why of course the people don't want war. Why should some poor slob on a farm want to risk his life in a war when the best he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece? Naturally the common people don't want war neither in Russia, nor in England, nor for that matter in Germany. That is understood. But, after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the peacemakers for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."--Hermann Goering 1946(1893-1946)

Commander-in-Chief of the Luftwaffe, President of the Reichstag, Prime Minister of Prussia and, as Hitler's designated successor, the second man in the Third Reich.

[Göring] Nuremberg Diary (Farrar, Straus & Co 1947), by Gustave Gilbert (an Allied appointed psychologist), who visited daily with Goering and his cronies in their cells, afterwards making notes and ultimately writing the book about these conversations.

"As such, the United States now no longer exists as "united states"; rather, it is now simply a single entity known as "America" whose state-boundaries are now secondary, and which exists as a shell of its former self. It is no longer a land of peace and prosperity, except what little can be maintained in an atmosphere of violence and hostile competition as its inhabitants fight for freedom against one another, each struggling via the law of the jungle to "tax or be taxed, regulate or be regulated." This is only possible in an oppressive, captive environment, which the original system was created to preclude; the only solution, it seems, is to restore this former system, ending federal supremacy and once again restoring supreme sovereignty to the states as a check on such federal excess." -- Defining 'America' July 5, 2004 by Brian McCandliss who is a business and economics graduate of Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, a law student, and a businessman in Detroit, Michigan.

"Once a government is committed to the principle of silencing the voice of opposition, it has only one way to go, and that is down the path of increasingly repressive measures, until it becomes a source of terror to all its citizens and creates a country where everyone lives in fear." --Harry S Truman

"Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government..."

It is from the second paragraph of the American Declaration of Independence.

"Civil disobedience becomes a sacred duty when the state has become lawless or corrupt. And a citizen who barter with such a state shares in its corruption and lawlessness... Every citizen is responsible for every act of his government... There is only one sovereign remedy, namely, non-violent non-cooperation. Whether we advertise the fact or not, the moment we cease to support the government it dies a natural death... My method is conversion, not coercion, it is self-suffering, not the suffering of the tyrant..."--Mahatma Gandhi "We are fast approaching the stage of the ultimate inversion: the stage where the government is free to do anything it pleases, while the citizens may act only by permission; which is the stage of the darkest periods of human history, the stage of rule by brute force." --Ayn Rand, The Nature of Government

"When force is the standard, the murderer wins over the pickpocket, and then that society vanishes, in a spread of ruins and slaughter. Do you wish to know whether that day is coming? Watch Money. Money is a barometer of a society's virtue. When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion - when you see that in order to produce, you need permission from men who produce nothing - when you see that money is flowing to those who deal, not in goods, but in favors - when you see men get richer by graft and pull than by work, and your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you - when you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice - you may know that our society is doomed. Money is so noble a medium that it does not compete with guns and it does not make terms with brutality. It will not permit a country to survive as half-! property, half-loot. Whenever destroyers appear among men, they start by destroying money, for money is men's protection, and the base of a moral existence." --Ayn Rand, whose given name is Alissa Rosenbaum was a witness to the socialist horrors of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. She escaped and arrived in the United States in 1926 on a visitor's visa, but never returned. Ayn Rand became a successful novelist and popular philosopher of reason and individualism after working as a screenwriter in Hollywood. She helped inspire the modern libertarian movement.

"I LOVE MY COUNTRY, I DESPISE WHAT MY COUNTRY HAS BECOME!!"
--Billy-Joe..Mauldin 2003

"the systematic repression of all our freedoms under the pretext of "Homeland Security" modeled after the Gestapo and the Security Service [SS] of Nazi Germany. I don't think I need to say more about that, but please make strong efforts to inform others of this who are still afflicted with mass-media brainwashing. Keep throwing the facts in their faces until they can no longer dispute you. We cannot take our country back concentrated in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the world--no longer a government of free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of small groups of dominant men."

-- President Woodrow Wilson

"Every act of resistance makes tyranny weaker. Many, many acts of resistance, even small ones, can topple it. I don't wish suffering on myself or anyone else, but I am proud of people who have stood up for truth and justice when it was dangerous to do so. And I'll be proud to BE one of those people, no matter what happens to me." -- Tessa David Rose (Wife of Larken Rose)

"Most people prefer to believe that their leaders are just and fair, even in the face of evidence to the contrary, because once a Citizen acknowledges that the government under which he lives is lying and corrupt, the Citizen has to choose what he or she will do about it. To take action in the face of corrupt government entails risks of harm to life and loved ones. To choose to do nothing is to surrender one's self-image of standing for principles. Most people do not have the courage to face that choice. Hence, most propaganda is not designed to fool the critical thinker but only to give moral cowards an excuse not to think at all." --Michael Rivero

"A really efficient totalitarian state would be one in which the all-powerful executive of political bosses and their army of managers control a population of slaves who do not have to be coerced, because they love their servitude. To make them love it is the task assigned, in present-day totalitarian states, to ministries of propaganda, newspaper editors and school teachers." --Aldous Huxley (1894-1963)

"Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God."-- Thomas Jefferson

I believe that resistance to tyranny is obedience to The Creator. Once I learned the truth I had to do something about it. There's no way in good conscience I can allow my posterity to grow up in today's world as it is. I must be one of the People that do something.

--Rae Copitka, 2007

"Regarding the pledge of allegiance to the "Republic." When one "pledges" anything and particularly allegiance he/she is making an oath. We have had oath discussions before but I don't think we take it seriously enough. Though I have MAJOR issues with the Jehovah's Witnesses I must agree with them that taking an oath or a pledge goes against Scripture. Even they do not obey this when it comes to signing "under penalty of Perjury." In my correspondence with Al Thompson he is adimate about this point. He spends a great deal of time in the Bible and has concluded that this is the trap that gets us into those adhesion contracts and entanglements with the "system." I tend to agree with him more and more. Technically, the only people that should work for [corporate] government, most of which requires an oath, are the non-believers. When they become believers they should "come out of Babylon" so to speak and disengage themselves from satan's system. As much as we can rely on the constitution it DOES require oaths. Kinda makes you wonder, doesn't it? I've long since retired from making my "patriotism" a religion. My wife and I both are military kids. We grew up Very patriotic. Making the pledge, singing the anthem hand over heart, signing under "penalty of Perjury." We no longer claim a citizenship anywhere but God's Kingdom because of His promise. Once the veil is lifted and satan's deception is exposed that is really all that we as believers have left. It was really all that we had to begin with and that is what God has been trying to tell us since the Garden of Eden. Blind loyal nationalism has been the gravestone and suffering of so many millions of people it almost makes me ill. America, despite its roots is NOT a Christian nation and will likely never be one. The membership role of the Kingdom of Heaven is ours to expand no matter where we live. THAT is my country. HE is my King and whom I will serve. He has jurisdiction. I will give to Him that which is His and to Caesar that which is Caesar's (nothing.) I am a bond servant of Christ and will take NO oaths to any other man, beast, or fiction for that would be trying to serve two masters. That cannot be done."

--Rick; Hartz (Rickity) 9/30/2005

"I could send you the information on how the pledge of allegiance got started and by whom [if you want] but a Christian could never give their allegiance to anyone other than God. I would give my loyalty to this country which I have done, [being USMC retired] but my allegiance is to God only."--Al Beyer 10/1/2005.

I would suggest reading the following books:

The Creature From Jekyll Island (2002) by G. Edward

Griffin Reads like a detective story --cause of wars, boom-bust cycles, inflation, depression, prosperity, etc and who is behind it all.

None Dare Call It Conspiracy by Gary Allen

Death of a Nation; None Dare Call It Treason by John A. Stormer

Tragedy and Hope (1977) by Dr. Carroll Quigley a Harvard professor and an intimate, high level member of the international elite, more commonly known today as the New World Order. 1,348 pages. This book is important to read because Quigley meticulously details the carefully planned and orchestrated scheme of the capitalistic elite and their plot to establish a one world government.

Here's a little story from Plato's most famous book, The Republic. Socrates is talking to a young follower of his named Glaucon, and is telling him this fable to illustrate what it's like to be a philosopher -- a lover of wisdom: "Most people, including ourselves, live in a world of relative ignorance. We are even comfortable with that ignorance, because it is all we know. When we first start facing truth, the process may be frightening, and many people run back to their old lives. But if you continue to seek truth, you will eventually be able to handle it better. In fact, you want more! It's true that many people around you now may think you are weird or even a danger to society, but you don't care. Once you've tasted the truth, you won't ever want to go back to being ignorant!"

"Here's to the crazy ones. The misfits. The rebels. The trouble-makers. The round pegs in the square holes. The ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules, and they have no respect for the status-quo. You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify, or vilify them. But the only thing you can't do is ignore them. Because they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones who do."

-- Apple Computers, from "Think Different" Advertisement

"A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and carries his banner openly. But the traitor moves amongst those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears not a traitor; he speaks in accents familiar to his victims, and he wears their face and their arguments, he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation, he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of the city, he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murder is less to fear."
