

COMMUNION

We participate in communion each week as a reminder of Jesus' death on the cross.

Communion can be picked up on your way in to worship. If you are worshipping at home or in a small group gathering and would like communion, please contact your campus office.

NOW WHAT?

Welcome to Northwest Christian Church!

We appreciate your flexibility and patience as everything continues to be fluid. This week all three campuses are gathering at 9:00 & 10:30am. Check Facebook, mynw.cc or the Infocircle each week as the times may change!

NCC Live is here to stay! You can join us online from anywhere in the world four times each week, Thursday nights at 6:30, Sunday mornings at 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Pacific time. Find us on our Facebook pages, YouTube channel, and on our website. We will continue to provide updates via our website and social media channels. Help us spread the word by reposting or sharing these videos, we would greatly appreciate it!

As believers in Jesus, we can trust God, even in times of uncertainty. We remember and trust the words of Jesus when He tells His fearful disciples in John 14:1, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, trust also in Me."

MESSAGE NOTES

NOW WHAT? BE PERSISTENT OCTOBER 18, 2020

“We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that His life may also be revealed in our mortal body. So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. It is written: ‘I believed; therefore I have spoken.’ Since we have that same spirit of faith, we also believe and therefore speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you to Himself. All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God. Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.” 2 Corinthians 4:8-18
