Therefore Go
The End
Billy Holden

Big Idea: Revelation promises a new heavens and earth and a new Jerusalem. The question that remains is: Will you be there? We want you to be. The Story has been all about God wanting to be with you. Do you want to be with God?

Intro: Move That Bus!

1. The Book of Revelation presents to us the triumphant Christ.

Rome rules the world as John the Apostle is an exile on the Island of Patmos, but things are not what they seem. Revelation 1:8 - 8“I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end,” says the Lord God. “I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.”

Jesus visiting 7 of his churches. Revelation 2-3.

2. The center of the universe

Revelation 4:1-2 Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.” 2And instantly I was in the Spirit, and I saw a throne in heaven and someone sitting on it.

_____ not in control of the world.

Closing - Genesis vs Revelation

Genesis presents the creation of the heavens and earth; Revelation presents the new heavens and earth.

Genesis tells of the creation of the sun, moon and stars; Revelation tells that there is no need of the sun because God will be the light.

Genesis tells of paradise lost; Revelation presents paradise regained.

Genesis tells us that Satan was in the first garden; Revelation tells us Satan is banished forever from the new garden.

The “new” in new heavens and earth and new Jerusalem means rejuvenated, not replaced.

Revelation promises a new heavens and earth and a new Jerusalem.

But the real question in revelation is... Will _____ be _____?
