

Luke 7:36-50

36 One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and reclined at table. 37 And behold, a woman of the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that he was reclining at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of ointment, 38 and standing behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head and kissed his feet and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner." 40 And Jesus answering said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he answered, "Say it, Teacher." 41 "A certain moneylender had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more?" 43 Simon answered, "The one, I suppose, for whom he cancelled the larger debt." And he said to him, "You have judged rightly." 44 Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45 You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. 46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little." 48 And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." 49 Then those who were at table with him began to say among[a] themselves, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?" 50 And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him-open to the public, people could come and listen and watch.

Who was a Sinner-Woman had proven to everyone she is a sinner.

Alabaster-mineral or rock used for carving. Very expensive, great for holding precious ointments or perfumes.

If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner-wasn't upset because the woman come in or did this, but he finally found proof Jesus wasn't a prophet. Rules about women.

"Do you see this woman? I entered your house-I believe Christ was saying did you see how she worshiped me.

A person's worship is only as real as their humility.

For she loved much-she didn't keep religion/rules.

Pharisee VS the woman

They were both Sinners.
The woman realized it, the pharisee didn't

Pharisee invited Jesus into his House
Woman sought out Jesus

The Woman gave everything she had!!!
Everything!!!!

The Good and The Bad.
