CHURCH FAMILY NEWS

PASTOR & FAMILY SUMMER TRAVEL

Dear Congregation,

With summer comes various travel plans for a number of us. I would ask for your prayers as I head to Richmond, VA for the PCA's General Assembly from June 10-14. Additionally, our family will be traveling to Washington State after worship on Sunday, June 23 and returning Friday, July 5th. If during either of these times there is a pastoral emergency, feel free to reach out to one of the elders or myself. The Lord bless you. --Pastor Will

Notes for the Preaching of God's Word

Final Renewal Zechariah 14:1-21

Main Preaching Point: Since the coming of the Lord will be a day of judgment and of his final supreme reign, yield to the Lordship and saving grace of Jesus Christ, that you may know the hope to which He has called you.

- The Judgment of God—the One to whom all are accountable
 - The Reign of God—the One who holds sway over all

Questions for Individuals, families, or small groups

Text: Zechariah 14:1-21

Title: Final Renewal

Questions:

1. What was most important or applicable in today's preaching? Can you summarize the main message?

The Judgment of God—the One to whom all are accountable

2. Read Zechariah 14:1-7. How do these verses reflect the judgment of God? Who is judged—the enemies and nations opposed to the Lord and his people, or is the covenant community also judged? Discuss.

- According to the sermon what is significant about the language of “in that day...in that day” (v.1,4,6,8,9,13)? How does it relate to the theme found throughout many prophetic books of “the day of the LORD”? Read Amos 5:18, Isaiah 13:6 & 9, and Zephaniah 1:7, 14. Relate.

3. Will the church of Jesus Christ be judged? Read 2 Corinthians 5:20 & Revelation 20:11-15. Discuss.

- What kind of judgment will Christians undergo given the truth of Romans 8:1? How ought this to be a great assurance and encouragement? Explain.

4. Consider and discuss the following resolution from Jonathan Edwards: Resolution 48. “Resolved, constantly, with the utmost niceness and diligence, and the strictest scrutiny, to be looking into the state of my soul, that I may know whether I have truly an interest in Christ or no; that when I come to die, I may not have any negligence respecting this to repent of. May 26, 1723.”

The Reign of God—the One who holds sway over all

5. Read Zechariah 14:8-21. Verse 9 states that “the LORD will be king over all the earth.” Read Mark 1:14-15. According to the sermon, how does God's reign (in Christ) over all the earth come in two main stages? Why is this important for believers as they live their lives between the first and second coming of Christ?

6. Read Ephesians 1:20-23. Given that God's reign is now through the coming, person, and work of Christ, how ought this to shape the believer's life and service of the Lord? Explain.

7. In considering Zechariah as a whole and this particular part of God's larger redemptive story, why is it important for one's life to be shaped by the whole biblical story of God's creation and restoration of all things? Explain. What are some of the main takeaways from the book of Zechariah? And how does this book as a whole point to the person and ministry of Christ?
