THE TRUE JEWS TODAY

The Atlantic slave trade or transatlantic slave trade took place across the Atlantic Ocean from the 16th through to the 19th centuries. The vast majority of slaves transported to the New World according to written history were NOT NATIVE AFRICANS from Central and Western and Eastern parts of the continent, in fact these people have been historically proven to be descendants of EARLY HEBREWS THAT HAD MIGRATED FROM ARABIA AND EGYPT, ISRAEL AND ETHIOPIA into West Africa. These people were attacked and sold by NATIVE AFRICAN TRIBES and Muslims to European slave traders who then transported them to North and South and Central America. This statement is further proven through written historical records from Arab and Muslim writers and also medieval African maps written in the 17th century by the conquering Europeans. In the map that is shown geographical locations of Hebrew cities and Kingdoms that were later taken into Slavery.

The First medieval African Map was Performed by the Sr. Danville Under the Patronage of the Duke of Orleans." Revised and Improved by Mr. Bolton(1766). Another medieval African Map called Negroland and the adjacent countries also UPPER GUINEA showing the principal European Settlements and Distinguishing by Eman Bowen 1747 West Africa

THE 1747 MAP BELOW SHOW THE KINGDOM OF JUDA (YahUDAH) IN WEST AFRICA
The Kingdom of Juda (or Whidah) can be clearly seen in the area named the "Slave Coast" where the Portuguese first set up their slave port in 1580. The twenty eight chapter of Deuteronomy verses 15 - 68 details the plight of the people of Yah after fleeing Jerusalem, and fifteen centuries later being caught up in the transatlantic slave trade. On today's modern maps the place is called Ouidah, which means Whydah or Judah. The first slaves were brought to the America's in 1510 - Notice: in the map shown, the kingdom of Judah became. or were renamed "Whidah (Judah) Slave Coast"

The King James Version (KJV) Conspiracy

The spelling of those names are different in the KJV. Notice that Isaiah does not have "Yah" spelled in its ending although it is pronounced alike.

When most people are asked about the name of the Heavenly Father, you'll get different answers—God, Jesus, Allah, Jehovah, etc.

Some may even claim that it doesn't matter what you call Him. However, the truth is none of these answers can be validated from the bible. The Most High has ONE name. His name is above all names. Within His name lies His power and main attribute.

Who is Yah?

According to the bible, Yah is the name of the Most High. It's revealed in the book of Psalms.

Psalms 68:4 - Sing unto the Almighty, sing praises to His name: extol Him that rideth upon the heavens by His name YAH, and rejoice before Him.

Notice the name, JAH, listed in the standard King James version. That is incorrect. There is no letter J, J equivalent, or J sound in the Hebrew, Latin or Greek languages. In fact the letter J is one of the newest letters in the English alphabet. It came into usage sometime after 1630. This means that 2000 years ago there was not a person on earth named Jesus nor was there a people called Jews or a city named Jerusalem. The names Jesus and Jehovah are not in the 1611 King James bible. Even King James' name was spelt differently back then. It was Iames.

Let's get greater understanding of Yah's name.

His name is not limited to one language. It can be spoken in every tongue on earth. The meaning of Yah is "The self-existing one or to self exist." Yah, the Almighty Power, is the only entity in all creation that exists from His own power. Everything in creation exists from the power of Yah. This includes Angels, both fallen and righteous, man, animals, planets, stars, moons, suns, etc. But He alone is self-existing. That is a power too profound for human understanding.

The Proof of Yah is in Our Roots

During the time of American slavery our people would sing beautiful songs that were entitled "Negro Spirituals" (more on the spirituals and the story they told are addressed in later chapters). One popular song that is proof of Yah's name is the spiritual, "KUMBAYAH," which means, "Come by Yah." Our ancestors were calling upon the Most High, Yah, to come and save them. They knew His name was Yah.

According to The Transatlantic Slave Trade Database website, slavevoyages.org, hundreds of slaves had Hebrew names containing the name of Yah.

It is commonly known that Harriet Tubman is often referred to as "the Moses of her people" due to her contributions in facilitating the Underground Railroad. However, what is probably less known is that she was given a Hebrew name at birth. Additionally, many of her relatives carried names of Hebrew origin. Harriet's birth name was Araminta, which is a given name in Hebrew meaning 'lofty, noble, or elevated in character and spirit'.

Here we have provided a short list of a few of her relatives along with the meaning of their names in Hebrew:

Linah (Harriet's sister)..... Hebrew name meaning 'dwelling, lodging'

Mariah (Harriet's sister)..... Hebrew name meaning 'Yah has said', 'Yah is my teacher', or Moriah meaning 'Chosen by Yah'

Ben (Harriet's brother)..... Hebrew name meaning 'son'; Benjamin meaning 'Son of my right hand'

Rachel (Harriet's sister)..... Hebrew name meaning "ewe" or "little lamb"

Moses (Harriet's brother)..... 'To deliver' or 'draw out'

What's the name of our Heavenly Father and Messiah?

This very simple yet controversial question is asked of us in the book of Proverbs.

Proverbs 30:4 - Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? Who hath gathered the wind in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in a garment? Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

Before delving into understanding and identifying the modern day Israelites, we must first bring some foundational but powerful biblical truths to the forefront. As you read on you'll soon discover that the children of Israel were given the responsibility of bringing salvation to mankind. In fact, they are His earthly priests.

The Origin of God

All religions worship a god or gods. The only thing that will separate your god from the next is his or her name. Over the years a very noticeable thing has been developing amongst African-American Christian Churches. The Nation of Islam leader, Louis Farrakhan (pictured bottom right), has been traveling to the churches making speeches containing many references to God. On the surface the Christians and Muslims are supposed to worship different gods. Islam calls their supreme deity by the title, Allah, or god, and so do the Christians. If a Muslim minister can stand before a Christian Congregation and say, "God is Great!" and the entire place erupts with applause then is there really a difference?

The Most High gave the Israelites the duty of bringing the praises of His name back into the earth. Satan and his followers have tried for thousands of years to remove the Father's name from the remembrance of men. HalleluYah, he has failed!

Yah can be found in many of the ancient prophets' names, such as:

- ObadiYah, which means, "Servant of Yah"
- ZechariYah - "Yah remembers"
- IsaiYah - "Yah is salvation"
- ZephaniYah - "Yah hides"

The phrase, HalleluYah, means "Praise You Yah."

The Black Star Line (1919–1922) was a shipping line incorporated by Marcus Garvey, the organizer of the Universal Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), and other members of the UNIA. The shipping line was created to facilitate the transportation of goods and eventually African Americans throughout the African global economy. It derived its name from the White Star Line, a line whose success Garvey felt he could duplicate.[1]

Black Star Line became a key part of Garvey's contribution to the Back-to-Africa movement. It was one among many businesses which the UNIA originated, such as the Universal Printing House, Negro Factories Corporation, and the widely distributed and highly successful Negro World weekly newspaper.

The Black Star Line and its successor, the Black Cross Navigation and Trading Company, operated between 1919 and 1922. It stands today as a major symbol for Garvey followers and African Americans in search of a way to get back to their homeland.

The Black Star Line was incorporated as a Delaware corporation on June 27, 1919

SlaveVoyages.Org “The TransAtlantic Database”

The database of The TransAtlantic Slave Trade, which can be found online at www.SlaveVoyages.org has information on more than 35,000 slave voyages to the Americas and other parts of the world from the 16th to the 19th centuries. This database clearly isn't complete, but it offers a great deal of information about various things like the name of the ships used, the height/weight of the slaves, their ages, embarkation and disembarkation, sex etc.

What is unknown among many African Americans is that the slaves that were brought to the Americas HAD HEBREW NAMES, and over 822 of them contained the Name of Yah, which is the name of The Creator that is used among the Hebrew People. His Name was commonly used in Names that were given to the Children of Israel, such as Yahusha, which is the name os the Messiah meaning, “Yah is Salvation”, or Yah’s Saves”. Now, why would slaves have Hebrew names, if they were not Hebrews? The answer is that they were and still are to this day, THE REAL ISRAELITES FROM THE BIBLE WHO WERE TAKEN AND SOLD INTO SLAVERY.

All of this information, when viewed collectively alongside the records found within the African Names Database is profound to say the least. Through the collaborative efforts of researchers at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, the W.E.B DuBois Institute of Harvard University, and other research institutions around the world the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade Database has already provided empirical evidence that thousands of the men, women, and children who were transported from the shores of Africa had names of Hebrew origin. Though the slave owners deliberately stripped away much of their language and customs we can still see evidence that our forefathers who were led away into captivity maintained some recollection of their heritage. Not only did the Israelites who arrived in the Americas by way of slave ships have Hebrew names, but they often gave their children Hebrew names, they established communities as Israelites, and they engraved evidence of their cultural identity into the furniture in their early places of worship.
