GOLDEN PARADISE BEACH RATEPAYERS & RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION Inc
An Incorporated Member Volunteer Organization

Hi to our members and the wider community

The End Of Summer Surf Festival 2023 has been again well supported by sponsors this year and it is heartening to see recognition of the event from the Sale business community even with predicted tougher times.

That is not to say that local businesses have not been supportive, our thanks to Golden Beach Real Estate for stepping up as a Major Sponsor alongside GB Energy and Wellington Shire Council.

We are also very thankful for all our local businesses who have contributed with services leading up to the event.

The challenge going forward for the Association is to complete stage one of the Information Centre and Art Gallery project after Easter.

Overall we are on track with this ambitious project and it should be noted that stage one apart from the land provided by Wellington Shire Council has no direct grant funding provided for its construction.

The Association has used its business enterprise skills in the first instance to pay for its construction plus a very generous individual donation of $25k from an Artist that will provide the broader community with an asset valued at over $70k.

In addition, we will be commencing stage two of the project, all abilities and wheelchair-friendly toilet block in the open garden area. This also includes providing an additional 10k litre water supply for Fire Fighting purposes.

It should be noted that this toilet facility is not what is generally termed a public toilet block.

It is provided for Volunteers working within the GPBCTP, visitors to the Art Gallery, and support services for St Annes Golden Beach plus support facilities for Park events.

Proceeds from EOSSF 2023 will be used to help move forward quickly in this area. So we encourage you while still on sale to buy a ticket in the EOSSF Monster Raffle.

AVAILABLE ONLINE UNTIL 6.45 pm Saturday 8th April
Final Weigh-In for Fishing Competition 4.00 pm Saturday 8th April

Since the last Newsletter, the club has been active, participating in various events and planning new ones.

A very successful trip to the Dandenong Markets was held in mid November. For those unfamiliar with the market, it has a fabulous array of quality vendors selling everything from food from many cultures, clothing, jewellery, fabrics, music, souvenirs, gifts, books etc

Our traditional Christmas lunch was a huge success and enjoyed by all. Warragul Country Club was the chosen venue, providing an excellent afternoon of Christmas food and cheers and happenings..

An overnight stay in Melbourne in early March saw members visiting the Royal Botanic Gardens in Cranbourne on their way to the overnight stop in the city. On the following day a visit to the Melbourne Zoo was undertaken with all participants enjoying the experience.

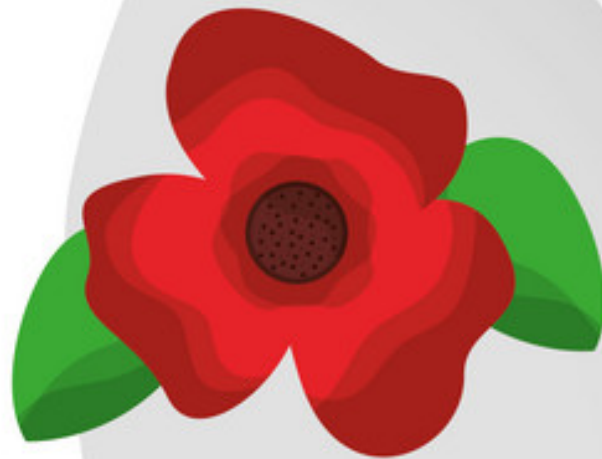

Saint Patrick's Day was celebrated in style at Ryans Irish pub in Sale. Many members added to the festivities by wearing green in the Irish tradition. Great food and great music made the day memorable.

The club is hoping to restart Carpet Bowls in the hall where anyone is welcome. It is proposed to have a trial, starting on April 18th and running fortnightly for four sessions.. Cost would be a measly $5 to defray costs. Play to start at 1.30pm.

Anzac Day is the next big event. Each year the Seniors manage the event for the whole community. The ceremony starts at 10.00am sharp at the memorial outside the hall. All are welcome to the morning tea following the ceremony. A plate to share would be appreciated.

The club is welcoming to new members. If any member of the community is interested in meeting good people and seeing as much of our state as possible, please contact a committee member. We would love to welcome you.

GB Gas have held Community Consultation meetings at the hall during March & April.

The Coastal CRC working on Community led resilience and recovery plans met in March.

In early March the hall was transformed for a wedding reception for Bronwen & David.

Coast Along – Art Show April 8th & 9th will be held in the main gallery space. So, mark your diary for this excellent exhibition.

Book Nook & Craft – Thank you to the volunteers who have been very busy knitting for charity. If you would like to contribute your skills you can join the group any Tuesday in the meeting room 2-4pm. Or just come along for a chat and make new friends. While there, browse the Book Nook free library service available on Tuesdays. Everyone is most welcome to attend.

Wellington Outreach Library service is open Thursdays 10-12 – Pre ordered library books can be collected from this venue.

Recycling - Don't forget we also offer a recycling service for print cartridges, pens, CD's, phones, appliance batteries etc.

Volunteers have been kept very busy with maintenance works during summer. We have contained the growth of native vegetation and maintained the walking tracks, grassed areas and fire breaks. Unfortunately, some landowners cleared their block and dumped their rubbish on the fire track behind their properties, creating a fire risk.

Maintenance work and improvements included the renovation of the all abilities access ramp and porch. The ramp and new front doors make it easier for wheelchair access to the dining room.
Thank you to Wellington Shire Council for funding this project.

VMMR Cent Night This family friendly event was a great success. Thanks to the exceptional auctioneer Andrew for a super effort once again. Loads of great prizes were won and Heather won the major prize. Thanks to our supporters and local businesses for donating cash and prizes. C-Tech Services, Sproutwell, Spoil Yourself Hair & Beauty, Betta Electrics, Golden Beach Real Estate, and Donna Blackwood. Thank you to the extended Maybury family for organising and running such a successful event to raise funds for kitchen improvements. Thank you everyone for attending.

Australia Day Weekend Surf Fishing Carnival Inc. 2023

Thank you to the organising committee and volunteers for another successful Australia Day Fishing Carnival. The VMMR and the CFA provided volunteers to assist with activities. Both groups will share in some of the profits from the carnival.

1/A GOLDEN BEACH SWIMMING AND LIFE SAVING CLUB

14 February 2023

CLUB UPDATE.

Dear Golden Beach and Paradise Beach Ratepayers, Residents and Visitors.

This is just an update on where the Surf Life Saving Club is currently at –

The Club has applied to Life Saving Victoria (LSV) for affiliation. Due to public concerns and feedback LSV is now more receptive to the establishment of new Life Saving Clubs along the foreshores of Victorian waterways. Due to the number of drownings and aquatic accidents that have occurred over the last couple of years, the public feedback and support, has been for the establishment of new clubs. LSV has established a 3 stage process for affiliation applications. The first step is to make application (this has been done), the second step is to be granted Probationary Affiliation, after meeting with LSV, and the final step is full affiliation. No time-line to reach the final step has been articulated, but this will be granted when LSV believe the club is ready to meet all criteria and requirements. One very important criteria we will need to show is full support from the local community.

The second update concerns the change of Office-bearers and Executive Members

President – Nikki Knights.

Vice President (Governance and Compliance) – Tony Seals.

Administration Manager (Secretary) – Sue Parratt.

Finance Manager (Treasurer) – Karen Kennedy.

Our new email address is – goldenbeachslsc@gmail.com

Our new phone number is listed above.

Please use the new email address or mobile number when contacting the club or if you need to make any further enquiries.

Welcome to Autumn.

The Men's shed continues to open, now on Monday mornings 8:30am – 12 noon, and Wednesdays 10am – 3pm.

We would welcome new members, with our current financial numbers at 27.

We continue to construct our all purpose picnic tables, at about 1 per month. We have confirmed orders for April and May. Unfortunately, we do have an issue with delivery, and if you are interested in ordering a table, please be aware that, in future, we ask that you arrange to help with the loading and unloading of the table onto the Ute for delivery. Depending on where the delivery is to, there may be a charge for delivery.

On a more positive note, a group (7) of members came together to complete some work to the shed that has been in the planning stage for several years. Over two days the team worked closely as a cohesive unit to complete most of the work. Some extra timber has needed to be ordered so that we can complete the work. Thanks to Avon Timber and Roofing Pty Ltd for their assistance with this.

Advance notice. The AGM for the shed will be held, subject to approval, on Saturday 3rd of July 2023. All members please note that renewal of membership will be required no later than June 31st 2023. Look out for details early June.

- » Do not wait for a warning.
- » Adhere to local regulations governing fire activity.
- » Ensure any industrial and agricultural activities adhere to relevant guidelines.
