NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

During Native American Heritage Month, we come together to not only acknowledge the invaluable contributions of Native peoples that have profoundly shaped our nation, but also to celebrate the enduring strength of the hundreds of Tribal Nations.

Celebrating Native American Heritage Month is a wonderful way to honor and recognize the contributions of Native Americans.

Here are some ways you can participate:

Support Native American-Owned Businesses:

Purchase from Native American-owned shops, restaurants, or online stores. This can help the well-being of Native American communities.

Please contact the Currents to have your native business featured in the Currents.

Email the Currents at Newsletter@LRBOI-NSN.GOV

Advocate for Indigenous Rights and Issues:

Support initiatives and policies that address the many challenges faced by Native Americans, such as land rights, healthcare access, and educational opportunities.

Support Native American Artists:

Purchase art, crafts, jewelry, and other products made by Native American artists. This not only supports the artists themselves but also helps preserve traditional crafts and skills.

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Educate Others:

Share what you learn with friends and family. Encourage conversations about Native American history and culture. Conversations around the Native experience are important to show

Read Literature by Native American Authors:

Explore the works of Native American writers. There are many talented authors who have contributed significantly to literature.

There are online Native book clubs that you can join such as

NDN Girls Book Club, available to join at <https://ndngirlsbookclub.org/about>

Well-Read Native, available to join at <https://wellreadnative.com/about>

Native American Heritage Month provides us an opportunity to celebrate the rich heritage and culture of Native American communities but also to address ongoing issues faced by Indigenous peoples past and present.

FALL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

On October 7th, the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians convened at the annual Fall Membership Meeting to provide tribal members with a comprehensive update on the current state of the tribe. Hosted by Ogema Larry Romanelli the gathering served as a way to provide vital information, engage in open dialogue, and discuss topics related to the tribe.

Following the presentation, an open forum was held, allowing tribal members to voice their concerns, ask questions, and provide valuable feedback.

You can watch the whole Membership Meeting online at

<https://lrboi-nsn.gov/government/membership-meetings/>

Calling All Writers!

Share your voice with the Tribe

Are you a member of the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians with a passion for storytelling? Do you have a unique perspective to share with your community?

We want to hear from you!

We're looking for talented writers to contribute articles, essays, and stories for our tribal newsletter. Your words have the power to inspire, inform, and connect us all.

Share Your Hunting Adventures!
We Want Your Photos & Stories!

Calling all passionate tribal hunters! The Currents is compiling an exciting collection of hunting experiences, and we want YOU to be a part of it.
Whether you're a seasoned pro or a first-time hunter, your story matters.

There's nothing quite like the feeling that comes with spotting a majestic buck through the trees. The crunch of leaves underfoot and the patience required to wait for the perfect shot all contribute to the magic of the hunt. We want to hear about your most memorable moments.

We're eager to receive your submissions and share your hunting stories with our tribal members. Let's celebrate the rich tapestry of experiences that make hunting a cherished tradition for our people. Together, we'll showcase the beauty of nature, and the respect we hold for the wildlife that graces our forests.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Submit Your Photos:

Send high-resolution images of your successful deer hunts. Include your name and location for proper credit.

Share Your Story:

Write a brief account of your hunting experience. Highlight the memorable moments and lessons learned.

Send your photos or stories to be featured in upcoming issues of the Little River Currents.

TRUNK OR TREAT

TRUNK OR TREAT

LRCR FTEs 2023

Definition of FTE's from Resort Financial Analyst:

*FTE - Full-time equivalent is considered to be 2,080 hours per year and is calculated as:

8 hours per day

× 5 work days per week

× 52 weeks per year

= 2,080 hours per year

The Resort does not budget based on "headcount" but uses total projected hours worked and converts those hours to FTEs.

The budgeted numbers above represent peak totals based on the approved 2023 budget. While there are some fixed positions budgeted, most are variable and total number of hours worked may/should fluctuate based on business volumes and averaged PTO hours.

Resolution #18-0912-271

Tribal Council has determined publishing this information will result in members being able to better evaluate potential employment opportunities by providing salary and wage information regarding similar positions and thus allow members a more informed decision making process when determining to apply for employment with the tribe as well as, in many instances, incurring costs related to moving to the tribe's Reservation to accept such employment.

Pucker Toe Moccasins

Join us to learn how to create a pair of pucker toe moccasins. This class will be most beneficial for those who have a basic knowledge of beading. Beading will also need to happen outside of class time to ensure that your moccasins are completed within the time frame. Supplies will be provided, but bead choices are VERY limited.

Manistee classes will be held 5:30- 8PM on Tuesday Evenings. Muskegon Classes will be held 5:30-8PM on Wednesdays. Please bring a snack to share

Harper Lou's Bowtique

When in doubt put a bow on it

Aanii, My name is Sara Crampton and I am a LRBOI tribal member. I'm a stay at home Mother to three beautiful children and recently I've turned a hobby of mine into a small business. I started making hair bows for my Daughter because I wanted her to have bows that matched every single outfit, sport, or event she did. We got so many compliments everywhere we went that I decided to start making them for everyone to enjoy. I use vegan leather and love to make polymer clay accessories to make my bows unique. I strive to take custom orders and to make sure you have a bow for every outfit and occasion. We can be found on Facebook and Instagram at Harper Lou's Bowtique and reached at ThatBowThough23@gmail.com for any inquiries.
