KNICKS GET KAT!

The Timberwolves have traded Karl Anthony-Towns to the Knicks for Julius Randle and Donte DiVincenzo. This is a really weird trade. I think this is good for the wolves. They added more defense, and they are obviously trying to rebuild around Anthony Edwards. I like this for the Wolves. I think this is a super good idea for the Timberwolves. He is a very good, young talent, and I think if they try to get a little more shooting to make up for Towns, they can be the best team in the NBA.

MAVERICKS GET THOMPSON!

It is time for the trade that everyone is excited about! So far, a couple days in, this trade is looking like a bad trade.

On the Knicks side, I hate this. They lose so much defense, and they are going complete shooting. Defense needs to be introduced to the Knicks soon, or they will not survive against the strong defensive teams, same with offense.

MAVERICKS GET THOMPSON!

Klay Thompson is not performing at the standards put on him right now. I think it is just the nerves getting to him though. He has never played for a different team. I think it will be a great addition, and bring some needed shooting to the mavericks. It will be a pretty good thing later in the season, right now, its just some baby steps to get Thompson used to being on a new team.

KINGS SIGN DEMAR DEROZAN!

The Kings have done a great job in the offseason once again! The Kings have decided to acquire DeMar Derozan over the off-season. I love this addition for the Kings. They really needed that shooting, and DeMar brings the veteran leadership and shooting that the Kings desired.

I am excited to watch this team play this year. I think the Kings will be a real contender this year, amazing scoring and things to get around the Celtics at the best of their ability. It will be a really good fit, and I think the chemistry will come together really well this season, and they will be able to play like they have been playing together for years. The Kings are going to be a real threat to the league this year, and I think it will be one of the most exciting teams to watch this season.

WARRIORS GET LAURI MARKKANEN!

The Warriors have just received a big piece. Lauri Markkanen is a beast on both ends of the floor. Lauri averaged 23 points last season, he is going to be a big step up from Klay Thompson, and will be a nice piece to fit next to Curry. I think the Warriors can be pretty scary this year. I am excited to watch them play.

Overall, I think it is going to be an entertaining NBA season! It is going to be a fun playoffs too! I am looking forward to watching these teams play, and I think the Celtics will have some good competition this year, in the Kings, Wolves, and Warriors. But I still hope the Celtics go back to back.
