Directors' Note

Welcome to our production of Newsies Jr.! We are beyond thrilled to finally bring this incredible story of resilience, courage, and unity to the stage. Set in 1899 New York, the show follows Jack Kelly and his fellow newsies as they band together to take a stand against powerful forces who underestimate the strength of determined youth.

Our cast has shown that through hard work, passion, and dedication anything is possible. They have worked hard to bring these characters to life and have proven that success comes when you work together. From the heartfelt ballads to the high-energy dance numbers, every moment reflects the spirit of hope and perseverance that defines this story.

As you watch these talented young performers take the stage, I promise you will be inspired. Their hard work, commitment, and enthusiasm have made this production a truly unforgettable experience for both of us. We could not have asked to work with a more talented cast and crew.

Every year there are so many people to thank for helping make this performance a success. We would like to thank Dr. DaSilva, Ms. Cory Gillette, Mr. Salem, Ms. Frese, Scott Tucker and all our custodians, Mr. Clavi, Patricia Grizzaffi, Lauren Canizares, Jean O'Connor, Emily Shiller, John Mansfield, and the RHS Theater Dept. We could not do this without your continued support.

To those who helped us, but wish to remain behind the scenes, your generosity and unwavering support have been an essential part of bringing this production to life. We are eternally grateful.

To the very patient parents who dealt with the ever changing schedules-you are incredible partners in this endeavor, and this production could not happen without your support.

Thank you to all the parents who volunteered to help and lead various committees.

A huge thank you to Jessica Brown for taking photos of the cast and crew and for putting together an incredible display board.

Thank you to our friends at the Tutoring Club for sponsoring this year's cast and crew party.

Thank you to Jesse Melitto of Woodside Productions for helping to fix our sound issues and providing us with enough mics to have a successful show.

Thank you to Erik Bray for coming back year after year to build sets, props, and make all my crazy ideas come to life. This could not happen without you. A special thank you this year to John Shiller for going on an adventure to obtain sets and props.

To our cast and crew family-What a joy it was to work with you all this year. We can't wait to see you back on the stage again next year for our next adventure together.

Finally, thank you to our own families who make so many sacrifices to enable us to be part of this extraordinary experience year after year.

Now, let's seize the day!

With endless gratitude,
Mrs. Bray and Dr. Polak
