

Racquetball Canada is seeking nominations for Board of Director positions for two-year terms commencing after our Annual General Meeting, August 24, 2022

The board will consist of seven (7) Directors including: President, Vice-President, Director of Finance, Athlete Representative and three (3) Directors at Large.

Racquetball Canada is seeking qualified candidates to play a role in the governance of an organization that reflects the values of integrity, inclusivity and safety, community and excellence

Qualified candidates will have the skillsets, expertise and experience necessary to support the priorities of Racquetball Canada's strategic and operational plans. Racquetball Canada is in search of individuals with expertise in finance, law, marketing/sponsorship, governance and risk assessment. We encourage those with other competencies as well as an interest in and knowledge of racquetball to seek nomination.
