Welcome To Stoneham Memorial Church

Organ Prelude, Offertory and Postlude: JS Bach : All glory be to God on high.

This chorale prelude is an adaptation of the Gloria in which the theme is everywhere. There is also much cheerfulness and strong Trinity symbolism that is deeply rooted in Luther's sermons. This arrangement is unmistakably a reflection of the Holy Ghost, whom Luther always portrayed as the source of joy and comfort. Bach writes two voices tumbling over one another above a simple baroque bass line. Only at the end, the original melody does surface suddenly amidst their revelry, and that is where you hear Bach's genius. In order to emphasize his devotion, he signed the work with the usual S.D.G.: 'Soli Deo Gloria'.
