Our Motto: To live and share the truth about God and His Kingdom.

*No Matter What Question The King Asked, Or What Problem
He Raised, These Four Knew
Ten Times More Than Any
Fortune Teller Or Magician In His Whole Kingdom.*

DANIEL 1:20

Our Mission Statement: We are committed to sharing the truth about God with the world. Believing that everything we do changes the world, we commit to demonstrate God's love and truth to each person He brings into our lives. Through His power and guidance we will choose to act with compassion, creativity and cooperation.

Today's Organ Music

Pachelbel's chorale partita was published by the composer in a collection dedicated to his wife, Barbara and their only son who died in 1683 during an epidemic. Each work in the collection begins with a four-part chorale setting followed by several variations, mostly in three voices. At the end, the four-part setting is played again. The overall mood of the collection is lighthearted and optimistic. Each set, however, includes a single variation in which there is a subtle sense of grief suggested by chromaticisms. BWV 541 or a job application for a talented son. In 1733 the time has come for Bach's eldest son, Wilhelm Friedemann to leave his parental home. His father's lessons had achieved their goal, and the young organist was already famous at the age of 20. As a prestigious organist position became available in Dresden, Bach wrote a letter of application on the same paper as a copy of a new composition, the organ Prelude and Fugue in G Major, BWV 541 from which we will hear the Prelude at the end of the service today. The music is energetic, virtuosic from beginning to the end, and in Italian style, music that Bach knew intimately and found inspiring. Wilhelm Friedemann passed the audition with it and remained in Dresden for over twelve years. An opening arpeggiato solo leads to an imposing tutti, which is reminiscent of the solo concertos of Vivaldi. Bach's direction 'Vivace' leaves us in no doubt as to the intended mood, and the prelude maintains its momentum right up to the closing note.

Church at Worship

Jesus said, “Love the Lord your God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence.’ This is the most important, the first on any list. But there is a second to set alongside it: ‘Love others as well as you love yourself.’ These two commands are pegs; everything in God’s Law and the Prophets hangs from them.” Matt. 22: 37-40
